

Chateau Des Joyaux

Region: Loire Valley Sleeps: 30 - 50

Overview

This magnificent château in the Loire Valley is known as “Petit Chambord”, for its resemblance to the royal palace in Loir-et-Cher. Built in 1854, it's now the site of truly grand weddings or special occasions, where guests stay in luxurious suites or beautiful rooms and can have daily meals prepared if you wish. Your on-site concierge, Cynthia, will welcome you warmly - ask her about arranging horseback rides or spa services (or both!).

For weddings, whether you hold your nuptials in the private chapel or in the gardens, this château's French Renaissance architectural details will make your photos unforgettable. The splendour continues inside, where masterfully carved wood panelling and hand-painted ceilings bring you back in time. Opulence pervades not only every room, but also the grounds, where the private lake is a romantic spot for a walk.

This is also a splendid venue to spend time with loved ones, perhaps for a special occasion when exquisite meals using the finest local ingredients from the Loire Valley can be prepared for you by the private chef. Various tailor-made packages can be created from a mid-week stay for 30 guests in the Château and neighbouring Gate House to a more lavish affair including the stunning 10-bedroom Coach House which even has its own dancing hall and bar. Everything from breakfasts, brunches and barbecues to gala dinners can be arranged to make your stay a truly unique event in the most historic and beautiful surroundings.

This holiday, wedding and events château is located only 30 minutes from the town of Angers, where you should tour the famous Cointreau factory. A ride on the TGV will bring guests to or from Paris in 1.5 hours. The Loire Valley is famous for wine and châteaux- since you have one already, set off in search of the vineyards. The wineries surrounding Saumur produce excellent sparkling wine...a toast is in order!

What we love

- This château in Loire Valley is built to impress: the 45m limestone walls contain 365 windows and 12 turrets
- The suites in the main château are each unique - we especially love the Romance Suite with its ornate four-poster bed, tall windows and original vaulted ceiling
- Loire Valley is known for its crisp, fruity white wines - be sure to visit the vineyards in Saumur
- Cynthia always offers Oliver's Travels bookers a very warm reception!

What you should know...

- Please note the château is not self-catered and the kitchen is not available to guests, however housekeeping and a chef are provided within the package quote (meals and prices by arrangement)
- Due to the nature of the château and the packages available all price quotes are bespoke and bookings are on request only - typically a package will include extras such as welcome drinks, welcome dinner, breakfast, a brunch (prices start at approx. €33,000 for a 2-night midweek winter stay for 30 guests). Please contact us.
- Please refer to the 'Features' tab for full details of bedrooms and layout
- You can hear the town church bells in the morning from the front bedrooms... but this adds to the charm!
- Please be aware that there are hunting trophies in the 'hunting room'
