Featured in The Telegraph 'The 10 Best Villa Holidays in France for 2017'

Chateau de Choisel, a castle in Brittany just south of Rennes, is a listed historical monument constructed in the 17th and 18th centuries. Relax in a heated pool and Jacuzzi spa on the 20-acre grounds, which also feature landscaped gardens and century-old oak trees around a fishing lake.

The chateau comfortably sleeps up to 11 adults and 2 children in spacious bedrooms, two of which are suites with living rooms that can serve as additional sleeping space. Gather together in two large salons, including a TV room with Satellite TV, and a library and grand dining room. The chateau's fully equipped kitchen opens up to the terrace, and you can barbecue and dine al fresco or even take a refreshing dip in the heated pool!

You're close to the village of Poligne, which has a tennis court, and nearby Bain de Bretagne's weekly market. Visit the picturesque historic centre of Rennes (33 km), as well as its museums and Jardin du Thabor. You're also only one hour from the châteaux of the Loire, Mont-Saint-Michel and Saint Malo.

Reach Chateau de Choisel via the Rennes (27 km) or Dinard (100 km) airports or the port of Saint Malo (100 km).
