

Chateau Du Chevalier

Region: Brittany Sleeps: 15 - 35

Overview

For an unforgettable family holiday or fairytale wedding, book Chateau Du Chevalier, a magnificent 15th century castle in Brittany.

Beautifully located on a ridge overlooking a charming pastoral landscape, the estate comprises a stunning main chateau and three annex buildings dating back to the 19th century and fully restored in 2000.

The estate comprises a stunning main chateau sleeping up to 15 lucky holidaymakers and three annex buildings, able to sleep a further 20 guests.

The 54 acres of grounds with spectacular views include 3 ponds, a heated outdoor swimming pool and a charming chapel. Enjoy outdoor pursuits like fishing and hunting, schedule a wine tasting, play table football in the games room and explore the region's historical sites.

The chateau's dining room features an original fireplace, and the drawing rooms, lounges, library and bedrooms have wooden panelling and paintings from 18th century.

The Big Maison (8 guests) sits just 100m from the chateau and has direct access to the pool and the kitchen garden. The Little Maison (4 guests) enjoys a superb view over the old castle park and the chapel and is just 25m from the pool. With two and four welcoming bedrooms respectively, both houses are particularly recommended for couples or families.

All buildings have high ceilings, massive oak beams, original fireplaces, grand windows, inspiring country-style kitchens, extravagant drawing rooms and beautiful bathrooms creating a superb living environment.

Furthermore, they all have easy access to the swimming pool and their own outdoor seating areas where you can enjoy relaxing evenings with enchanting views overlooking the park and valley.

Drive to the village of Combourg (4 km) to see an impressive castle and town centre. You're also 30 km from Rennes' cultural sites or Dinard's beaches. History buffs will want to visit the D-day beaches (150 km), and golfers can choose from 10 nearby courses, some just 15 minutes away.

Chateau Duval is 45 km from the Saint Malo port.

Not only is Brittany wonderful in the summer, it is also a great destination in spring when flowers are in full bloom. Likewise, autumn is the perfect season to gather around the fireplace and spend cozy afternoons in, not to mention December, which will take your breath away as the characteristic French morning mist settles like a lake in the valley, creating a spectacular scenery.

Please note that whilst the main chateau can be rented independently (15 guests rates), the annex buildings are only available as an addition to the main castle (35 guests rate).

Location & Local Information

Chateau Du Chevalier is a short drive to the village of Combourg (4 km), which has an impressive castle and town centre. You're also only 30 km from the cultural sites of Rennes or Dinard's beaches. History buffs will want to visit the D-day beaches (150 km). With 10 golf courses nearby (the closest just 15 minutes away), you can work on your swing.

Chateau Du Chevalier is 45 km from the port of Saint Malo. 45km from the Rennes Airport and 45 km from Dinard Airport

The nearest port is St Malo with its characteristic town wall. All the ferries that go to the Channel Islands leave from here. Nearby lies the coastal town of Cancale, where shellfish connoisseurs meet from all over the world, to visit the oyster farms and savour the fruits of the sea at one of the picturesque restaurants.

Other sights worth seeing include the abbey and former pirate nest Mont St Michel, as well as the villages of Vitre and Dinan - with their ancient city centres dating from the 12th century. In addition to good food, fascinating culture and beautiful beaches, there are seven different golf courses nearby. Some of these courses are placed around fantastic castles while others like Golf de Dinard is a seaside/links course with breathtaking view over the sea.
