Location & Local Information

Happert House is located in the middle of the historical part of Antwerp. There are unlimited bars and restaurants to discover such as Sir Anthony Van Dijck, which is one of the most famous restaurants with Michelin stars.

If you fancy art and culture, all the important museums and theatrehalls are within walking distance. Want to go shopping? No problem! One street away from the House Happaert starts the fashion street for youngsters but also the chic boutiques like Dries Van Noten. There are activities for the entire family!

Transport will not be any problem while visiting Happert House because trams, trains, taxis and bicycles are to be found just around the corner.

What we love

- The Hall is the ideal venue for your dinners, meetings, presentations or simply to relax by the open fireplace. It can sleep up to 12 guests and host up to 60 guests!
- The interior design is bright and colourful and was once the favoured residence of mayors, dignitaries and professors.
- This property is perfect to explore Benelux or the North of France.

What you should know...

- Antwerp has a lot to offer but is not a 'classic tourist hot spot'.
