

Residence du Cap

Region: St Lucia Sleeps: 4 - 8

Overview

Nestled on a hillside in beautiful Nestled in the hills of an old sugar plantation, Residence du Cap is situated on approximately three quarters of an acre. This elegant property enjoys breath taking views over the Caribbean Sea, Pigeon Island as well as the Pitons. Residence du Cap is a two storey house made up of three main bedrooms and a fully self contained guest cottage that counts as a fourth bedroom. The cottage is ideal as guest/in-laws quarters.

Leading from a decked footbridge from the car port, you enter into a cool and open plan living and dining area. This then leads to a spacious fully equipped kitchen with microwave, blender, coffee machine and fridge/freezer. The three double bedrooms located upstairs all have en-suite facilities, are air-conditioned and also have magnificent views. The master bedroom upstairs has an en suite shower room and a private balcony with wonderful views.

At the rear of the villa is a patio and courtyard offering private seating areas and the front French doors that open to the decked verandas where you can relax under the warm sun or cool off in the pool.
