

Bisenzio Tower

Region: Umbria Sleeps: 16

Overview

This lavishly renovated tower-turned-villa in Umbria has luxurious touches at every turn. Each guest will find their own pleasure; fitness lovers will hit the sauna and gym and the media room will enchant movie buffs. Bookworms will bury themselves in the extensive English library, while the chef of the family will perfect their pizza at the outdoor stone oven. All this, set above rolling hills at the border of Tuscany and Lazio.

This holiday villa is split between two buildings, with a courtyard between. The original 13th century tower spreads over four floors - to avoid the stairs, choose one of the ground floor bedrooms in the other building. The grounds were designed by a famous Italian landscape artist. Here, beneath a pergola dripping with leaves, you'll gaze out past the infinity pool to mountains beyond. Imagine breakfast on the stone terrace beside the sunroom - perfezione!

Overlooking the national park of Monte Rufeno, this holiday villa is set on a vast estate and is world apart from city life. Still, it's accessible - just 9 km from the A1 Autostrada connecting Rome and Florence. The nearest town is a precious medieval village above the Tiber whilst other idyllic places to visit include Città della Pieve, Orvieto and the wonderful waters of Lago di Bolsena.

Those wishing to explore a little further afield have Montepulciano, Cortona and Siena just over an hour away or take the train to Arezzo or Rome for the day.

Location & Local Information

Situated close to the Umbrian border with Lazio and Tuscany, Bisenzio Tower overlooks the stunning scenery of the Monte Rufeno national park in Umbria, the green heart of Italy. It's set in a large estate with vineyards, olive groves and an ancient breed of cattle who graze on the land. The on-site farm produces excellent wine, olive oil and high-quality beef, all organically certified.

Indeed, the whole area is a food lover's paradise. Umbria is home to the world famous salty Pecorino cheese, chestnuts, truffles and crisp dry Orvieto wine. Some of Italy's finest wine areas are on the doorstep and there are many small family-run vineyards which welcome visitors.

A haven of peace and tranquillity, yet you are also conveniently located just 9km from the A1 Autostrada between Rome and Florence. This means easy access to fascinating places including Orvieto, Arezzo, Assisi, Cetona, Montepulciano, Perugia, Siena and Spoleto as well as the lakes of Bolsena and Trasimeno.

Rome is two hours away on the Autostrada, and served by regular trains from the local town, which is just a 10-minute drive from Torre. Highlights include the Vatican City, Roman Forum, Colosseum and Spanish Steps.

Florence is about an hour and a half drive away and is also on the train line from the local town. Highlights include the Uffizi Gallery, Ponte Vecchio, Boboli Garden and Pitti Palace.

Siena is an hour and twenty minutes drive away, and again reachable by train. Visit the beautiful Campo square where twice a year (2nd July, 16th August) the world famous Palio takes place – a horse race dating back to the 1600s.

What we love

- The furnishings are beautiful, combining traditional charm with touches of luxury.
- The housekeeper is also a wonderful cook - ask about her catering services.
- Enjoy idyllic walks through the estate's olive groves and vineyards and visit the owner's farm.
- All produce from the estate is organic and the owners are environmentally aware with water coming from underground wells and electricity from solar panels.
- Situated in Umbria, near the borders of Tuscany and Lazio, you have three of Italy's most beautiful regions to discover.
- A filtered still and sparkling water system has been installed as part of owners' commitment to reduce plastic.

What you should know...

- The eight bedrooms are spread across two buildings - see the Features for details of the layout.
- Air-conditioning is featured in all bedrooms as well as the annexe's living room.
- The huge estate features olive groves, vineyards, the owner's farm and vast land where an ancient breed of cattle graze. Bisenzio Farmhouse is also on the large estate, a short drive away.
