

Villa Trullo

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 8

Overview

Built in traditional Apulia style with a conical roof, four bedrooms, three bathrooms stocked with Acqua di Parma toiletries, three living areas and two kitchens, Villa Trullo offers plenty of room for families travelling together. Check out "The best 2019 summer holidays for families" full feature in The Telegraph by Catherine Cooper.

Built in traditional Apulia style with a stone construction and conical roof, this ancient trullo villa in Puglia has been refurbished to the highest standard. Located in the scenic and secluded Salento countryside, the holiday home offers ultimate privacy within close reach of many attractions. It's also an excellent event venue.

The exclusive home boasts 3,000 square feet of luxury living space, including four romantic bedrooms and three stylish bathrooms. Modern and design-forward, it enlivens its inhabitants with vibrant colours, whitewashed walls, chic décor and high-end furnishings. Two kitchens and three living areas make it easy for the group to come together or spread out as they choose.

A veritable oasis lies just outside, with comfortable places to relax, table tennis, a sparkling pool with outdoor showers, a lush garden, and hundreds of fruit trees. The gazebo is an excellent gathering space for alfresco lunches, with a kitchen area and bar for when happy hour hits. New for 2021 bookings - a wonderful welcome basket awaits you and a typically Puglian breakfast is served every day.

San Michele Salentino is a short drive from the villa, or hop on bikes provided. The stunning beaches of the Adriatic and Ionian coast are within a 40/60-minute drive, respectively, and foodie lovers are within 20 minutes of Ceglie Messapica's Michelin-starred restaurants.
