

La Chiesetta

Region: Chianti & Arezzo Sleeps: 4

Overview

La Chiesetta, best known as the "house with a view", is an independent hilltop villa suitable for 4/5 people. Originally a Church of the Castello Monte, it has now been restored into a beautiful little cottage with private pool.

During the restoration, care was taken to preserve the original style using only the original stonework. All the external features have been designed to replicate the original design.

The cottage is independent but it is not isolated. The Hamlet of Castello Monte, with the same owners, is close by and in case of need, the housekeeper of the Hamlet will assist guests at La Chiesetta.

Location & Local Information

La Chiesetta is situated in a quiet location between Florence and Siena, nestled deep in vineyards and olive groves. It offers beautiful, extensive views over the surrounding landscape of Chiantishire.

It has been recently restored, preserving the original architectural and period features with ancient stones and materials.

All guests can participate in organized mountain-bike tours, recommended shopping in the outlets, cooking lessons, wine tasting tours, guided tours in groups or individual tours with a private driver. We also have facilities at the nearby "Ugolino Golf Club" which is only 15 km away from Greve.

Location

- The charming little village of Panzano in Chianti has a variety of shops: 6 km.
- Greve in Chianti: 10 km (can also be reached by 15 minutes downhill walk).
- Florence: 35 km.
- Siena 35: km.

What Oliver loves...

- The views are so good no picture can do them justice, we wish we can offer 4D view of villas sometimes...
- The villages of Greve and Panzano in Chianti are both within walking distance and full of treats.
- There is something unique about staying in an old church

What you should know...

- Walking down hillside track to Greve village may be quicker than a road detour by car
- There are daily energy charges all year round which need to be factored in
- WiFi is available but only in the communal areas of the neighboring hamlet
