

Villa Morro

Region: Makarska Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Morro is located on a beautiful beach in Drašnice, a small village on the Makarska Riviera. This magnificent holiday house is striking, with clean lines and a simple colour palette.

Boasting five generous bedrooms (three with their own sea-view balcony!), the villa has all modern comforts with air-conditioning throughout and a well-equipped kitchen. Big double doors at the front of the property grace guests with spectacular ocean views while the steep cliffs of the Biokovo Mountains create a dramatic landscape at the back of the property.

Out on the veranda a private swimming pool and deck chairs provide the perfect place for enjoying romantic dinners and Drašnice's incredible purple sunsets.

Location & Local Information

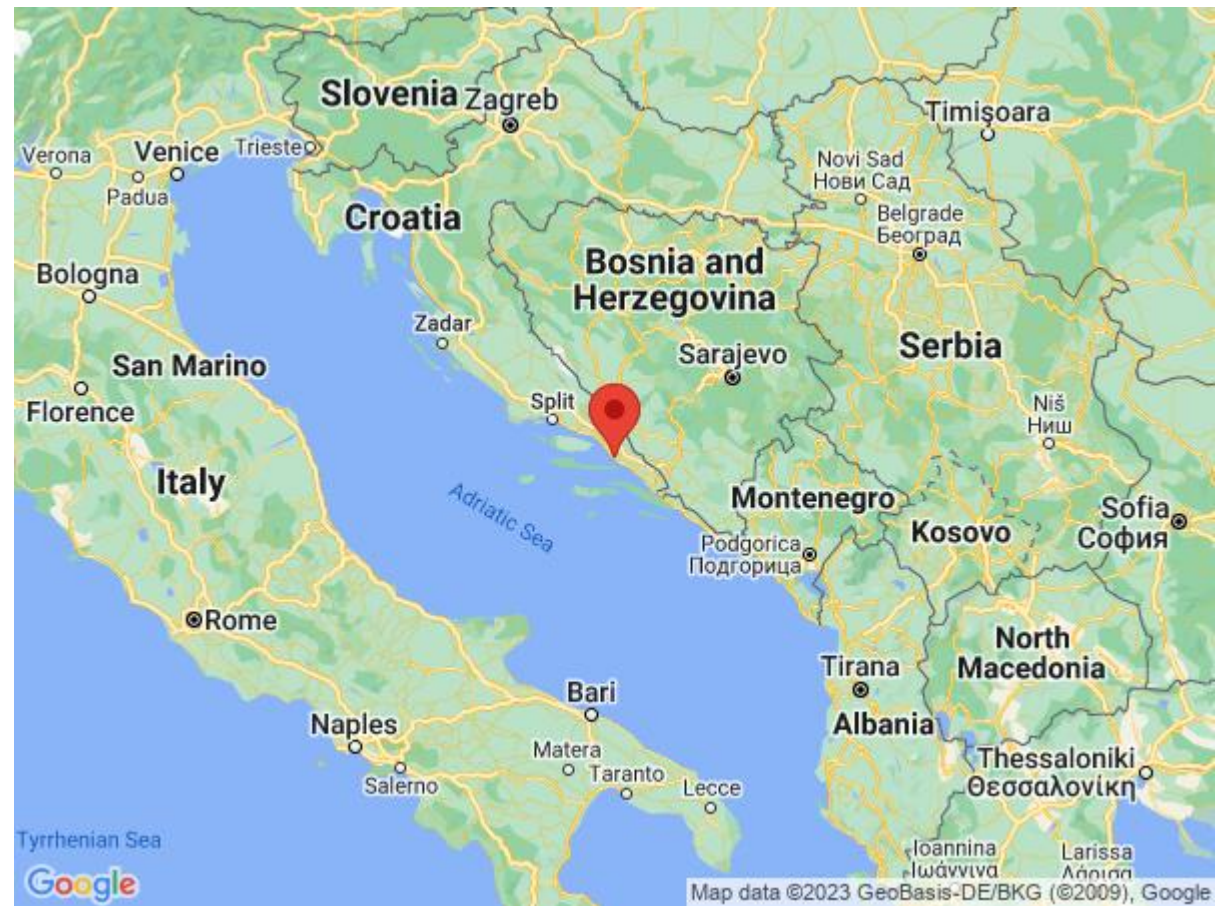

With sparkling seas, tranquil bays and the impressive Biokovo Mountain Range looming in the background, the Makarska Riviera is one of the most stunning and popular stretches of the Croatian Coast.

Drašnice is a small village with beautiful pebble beaches, an incredible year-round climate and a handful of shops all within walking distance of the villa. Makarska, Brela and Baska Voda are all within easy driving distance and from Makarska there is a regular ferry service that goes to Brac Island, the longest island in central Dalmatia and definitely worth a day trip. Make sure you squeeze in a hike through Biokovo Nature Park, it has jaw-dropping views of the coastline. The village itself offers a handful of shops, all within easy walking distance.

Makarska (14 km) is a pretty limestone town with plenty of opportunities to get active with rockclimbing, paragliding, mountain biking and windsurfing all on offer. The beaches always have plenty of fun family activities happening like beach volleyball. During high season it also boasts a pumping nightlife.
