

Casa Da Sogno

Region: Western Sicily Sleeps: 8

Overview

Experience a dream holiday at Casa da Sogno, a villa in Sicily on the charming island of Favignana. This newly built villa with sea views was constructed with local materials, including sandstone. Set in a Mediterranean garden of 15,000 square metres, the villa includes a pool, fitness area and outdoor kitchen. Fire up the barbecue and dine under the stars.

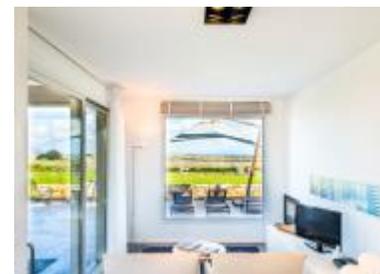

The villa, designed as two separate living quarters for independent or combined use, features a contemporary "isolano" style and uber modern décor. Air-conditioning and underfloor heating guarantee your comfort no matter the season. Each of the two suites has a master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a kitchen, and one suite has a second twin en-suite bedroom. The large central covered terrace is perfect for al-fresco meals.

Situated between the most beautiful beaches on Favignana, the villa is just a 15-minute drive or around a 5-minute cycle ride from Cala Rossa and Cala Azzurra. Both of these popular beaches feature golden sand, crystal-clear water ideal for swimming in and stunning scenery.

Also nearby is Bue Marino Beach, which can be reached by car in around 5 minutes or on foot via quiet country roads in around 20 minutes. This is one of the most striking spots on the island, with impressive cliffs sheltering the little cove, soft sand perfect for sunbathing and calm water superb for swimming. A sandwich shop sells delicious tuna sandwiches which the island is well-known for and a summer beach bar serves a selection of drinks.

Other gorgeous beaches nearby include Lido Burrone, Calamoni and Marasolo, which are all less than 15 minutes away.

5km away sits the little seaside village of Favignana. From here you can catch various boat tours around the island as well as the ferry to Trapani, which takes around half an hour.

Location & Local Information

Casa Da Sogno enjoys an idyllic position on the island of Favignana, which can be found off the west coast of Sicily in between Trapani and Marsala. Unspoilt and boasting outstanding natural beauty, Favignana is made up of jagged clifftops and glorious beaches, some just a short drive away.

The villa is located 1km from the glistening coastline, with an uninterrupted view of the sea and surrounding countryside. Bue Marino Beach is just over a 5-minute drive away or around a 20-minute walk along dusty country roads. Sheltered by time-worn cliffs and with sand and crystal-clear water, it's a serene spot to spend the day sunbathing and swimming. There's a sandwich shop and summer beach bar here too for picnics on the beach or a cocktail before heading home.

Two of the most beautiful beaches on Favignana can also be found nearby: Cala Azzurra and Cala Rossa. Cala Azzurra is an open stretch of beach featuring sugary sand and azure sea ideal for swimming in. It can be reached by car in around 15 minutes or on foot or hire bikes and cycle there in around 5 minutes.

A ten-minute drive north takes you to Cala Rossa. Here there are summer beach bars/cafes and smoothed rock where you can set up camp and lay down your towel. It's a popular cove with calm water and stunning scenery.

Labirinto Di Cave at Cala Rossa features huge corridors of high cliffs and a labyrinth of caverns crafted by the island's quarrymen. It's an impressive site that's not to be missed during your holiday.

Lido Burrone is 3km along the coast and is one of the largest and busiest beaches on the island. There are sun loungers and deckchairs available to rent in summer and a fantastic selection of places to eat and drink.

The village of Favignana can be reached by car in 15 minutes. Baroque buildings, quality restaurants and an ancient castle await, as well as a pretty harbour and sandy beach. Various boat tours around the island depart from the village, including snorkelling excursions. The ferry to Trapani also leaves from the port, taking around 30 minutes to reach the main Sicilian shore and making for a wonderful day trip.
