Interior & Grounds

The chalet's five bedrooms are all fully ensuite and individually furnished in different fabrics, textures and antique furniture. Each features HD satellite television and a personal safe. Each of the bedrooms can be made into either a double or twin, two are equipped with a third bed and three are suitable for the inclusion of cots.

On the ground floor there is a leisure room featuring a swimming pool, Sauna, shower, bathroom and massage room, a study area equipped with telephone, fax, computer, broadband and wireless Internet access, a laundry room and a heated ski and boot room.

The chalet is surrounded by an extensive south facing sun terrace featuring a games area with table football and air hockey, outdoor heaters and a fully stocked bar. On-site parking is available on the chalet's heated private driveway. There are no less than five dedicated members of staff including a manager, professional chef, two hostesses and a bespoke on-call chauffeur providing an exceptional level of personal service.

Private return airport and train station transfers, ski passes on arrival and a fully stocked bar are all complimentary. Helicopter transfers from the airport to the Courchevel Altiport (located just above the chalet) in-chalet ski and snowboard equipment rental, childcare, private nannies, massage services and much more can be arranged as required.

Catering to the highest level is an integral part of the chalet service, and the combination of traditional French cuisine, creativity, flair and flavours from around the world provide a unique culinary experience including an a la carte breakfast, afternoon tea with mulled wine, children's evening meals, a selection of homemade hot and cold canapés with Champagne and a fabulous four course dinner with a range of specially selected wines.
