

Chalet La Ravale

Region: Meribel Sleeps: 10

Overview

From the second you walk into Chalet La Ravale you'll know you're somewhere rather special. Originally built by Mr Pomagalski (founder of the world-leading "Poma" company), much of the chalet interior is decked in the wood cleared when building the lift system in Méribel, so you'll be living in a real part of skiing history!

Until now, the chalet has been a private home, and we're delighted to finally be able to add it to our portfolio of exclusive chalets. A stand-alone chalet with delightful terraces and garden offering a wonderful view of the mountains, the chalet sleeps 10 people in supreme comfort, in 5 lovely bedrooms, each with en-suite bath or shower room. Each room has an individual style and character, making them a delightful place to lay your head at the end of an exhausting day on the slopes. There is even an additional attic bedroom which is suitable for 2 or more children.
