Location & Local Information

Villa Sophronia can be found right in the start of a charming Greek village, and is within easy walking distance from many great restaurants, cafes and shops.

Only 50 meters from the villa, you'll find the lovely marble path that leads right to the sunset point.

Fira, the main center of the island is only 11 km from the village, and the airport and Santorini's port are both less than 20km away.

Santorini's beaches are legendary, but the Red Beach is probably the most amazing.

You should visit the idyllic town of Oia with views over volcano of Palia and Nea Kameni islands.

You should do at least one tour. If you like walking, the Caldera path between Fira and Oia is a must-do; some tours cover this. There are wine tours, boat tours, such as sunset or a volcano one, where you can pool and towns to visit. Greek food is always good, but the mashed Fava bean, 'hummus' is one of Santorini's best local foods. Santorini's Cherry tomatoes are unique, so much so they have a museum dedicated to them. Also, try the Tomato Keftedes (Tomato balls).
