

Cala Garba

Region: Pollensa Sleeps: 6

Overview

You won't believe the panorama surrounding this modern villa in Mallorca, just a short distance out of Pollençà. Mountains covered in green stretch out as far as the eye can see over the private pool, and Pollençà's old town also makes an appearance. You just might want to lounge there for the length of your villa holiday. Luckily for you, the outdoor grill faces the mountains, and you've the option to dine al fresco on the covered terrace, so you needn't take your eyes off the view.

Inside, your holiday villa is utterly modern and spacious. Comfortable furniture and an open design invite your guests to unwind together. Cala Garba can comfortably accommodate up to six guests across three bedrooms, a double room complete with en-suite bathroom and two twins which share the use of a family bathroom.

Outside, the children are bound to enjoy splashing around in the private pool and playing games on the lawns! An outdoor shower room ensures you'll not have to worry about sand from the nearby beaches, and there's access to the dining terrace from both the living room and kitchen.

Pollençà is only 2km away, here you'll fall in love with the medieval winding streets and the Sunday morning market (get there early!) Pollençà's beaches are beautiful indeed - they have white sand, blue sea, and the option to scuba dive. The Cap Formentor lighthouse is worth a visit; perched on a cliff above the sea, it epitomizes the seaside beauty of Mallorca.

Location & Local Information

Located just outside the old town of Pollensa and only a short drive away from the idyllic sandy coves of Cala San Vicente and the expansive beaches of Puerto Pollensa, Cala Garba makes a great choice for anyone looking for accommodation beyond the usual tourist hotels.

Pollença is an attractive town in north east Mallorca, in the foothills of the Tramuntana mountains. With beautiful architecture to appreciate, such as the Calvari steps, the town is rich in history. Among its highlights are the 'Pont Romà', an ancient Roman bridge, the Mare de Deu dels Angels church with its famous rose window, and the Convent de Sant Domingo.

The neighbouring port, Puerto de Pollença, lies to the north and has one of the area's best beaches, with numerous bars and restaurants to explore in the vicinity. Puerto de Pollença also offers water-sports, a water park for children, and a golf course can also be found just outside the town.

Also to the north of Pollença is Cala Sant Vicenc, one of Mallorca's smaller resorts, and home to three beaches: Cala Molins, Cala Barques and Cala Clara. The landscape is dramatic and hilly, with rugged cliffs and rocks, and its popularity with visitors has seen it develop some excellent restaurants, tapas bars and useful amenities.

Further down the coast, Alcúdia has a large marina, serving as a boarding point for boat trips to Menorca and the Spanish mainland. The town is considered one of the most attractive in the area, so don't miss out on seeing its historic centre, visiting the open-air market or seeing Spain's smallest Roman amphitheatre.

Many beautiful places can be found in the areas further inland, such as the Natural Park S'Albufera, the largest of its kind in the Balearics. Pollença is easily accessible, with Palma de Mallorca Airport around 60km away.
