

Villa Giardiniera

Region: Umbria Sleeps: 6

Overview

Situated in a beautiful spot in the heart of the old hilltop town of Spello, Villa Giardiniera is only five minutes walk to the main square of Piazza della Repubblica, where you'll find a huge range of shops, bars and fantastic restaurants.

There's an abundance of outdoor activities to enjoy in the area (including fishing, hiking and trekking) all found conveniently near to the beautiful hill towns of Umbria. Explore fantastic towns and landscapes around Spoleto, Perugia, Montefalco, Gubbio, Città di Castello, Orvieto and Todi, as well as Assisi, the jewel in Umbria's crown, which is a mere 5km away from Spello!

Lounging in the wonderful garden spaces, taking up your time enjoying resting, reading and dining, is one of the greatest holiday pleasures - especially after a long day making the most of exploring wonderful Umbria!

Villa Giardiniera provides the perfect setting, with the garden specifically designed and planted to allow plenty of space to lie in the sun as it moves from east to west, or to recline in the shade on a day bed. The breathtaking view overlooks the Chiona valley, and thanks to the property's location traffic and noise are distant memories - the only thing before you is the Italian landscape at its very best.

Location & Local Information

Umbria is the 'green heart of Italy', one of the finest holiday destinations in the whole of Europe. It's a land of pristine rural landscapes, rolling wooded hills, mountains, valleys and, of course, boasts some of the most sublime art and architecture in the world.

Spello, where Villa Giardiniera is found, is only 20 minutes drive from Perugia airport and within a stone's throw away from Assisi, the birthplace of St. Francis. It's a quiet and elegant little town with excellent restaurants famed for the typically robust (and undeniably delicious) Umbrian cuisine, fine wines and raft of historic buildings. Spello is an ideal base from which to discover this beautiful and characterful region of Italy.

Within easy reach are the famous hill towns of Orvieto (with its legendary cathedral), Todi, Città di Castello, Gubbio, Perugia, Spoleto and the highly regarded wine region of Montefalco.

What Oliver loves...

- The villa enjoys a fantastic location - at the foot of medieval hilltop town, great for exploring one of the most beautiful regions in Italy!
- The wonderful garden offers unique views and a fantastic place to relax
- The modern and chic furniture will give your holiday a really sumptuous feel!

What you should know...

- Larger parties travelling together may also book the equally gorgeous Villa Buona (sleeps 6), La Casetta (sleeps 2-3) and La Camerata (sleeps 2) are also virtually next door
- Bedrooms are on different levels with separate entrances and not adjoining, hence may not be ideal for guests with small children
- The pool is quite compact (3m x 6m) as the property is found in the historic centre where pool sizes are limited accordingly
- There's no parking in front of the house (but it's only a three minute walk away)
