

Villa Di Tufo

Region: Umbria Sleeps: 12

Overview

Among olive groves and verdant meadows, between the medieval towns of Todi and Orvieto lies Villa di Tufo, a classic Umbrian villa with an astounding selection of modern amenities.

Adjoining the wonderfully refurbished farmhouse is a fitness area with adjoining gym, housing a chromo therapy shower, Turkish bath and mosaicked relaxation area. Stepping outside into the garden there is a large panoramic terrace where you'll find the swimming pool, as well and a solarium complete with fountain and gazebo.

The peaceful surrounding countryside is rich in wildlife, the surrounding towns a veritable treasure trove of artistic and historical attractions, and as you might expect with any trip to Umbria you'll find a fabulous choice of local food and wine on offer wherever you end up.

Location & Local Information

The villa is positioned within the region of Umbria, close to the border with Lazio.

Within around 10 km of the peaceful banks of Lago di Corbara.

The medieval town of Orvieto is under 20 km away and accommodates many remarkably beautiful historic attractions including the stunning gothic Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta.

Around 30 km in the other direction takes you to the ancient town of Todi, first mentioned in 1300 BC in Roman mythology as a town built by Hercules on the sight where he slayed the fire-breathing giant Cacus. Today you can visit many grand medieval Palazzo, and visit one of the oldest communal spaces in Italy, the Piazza del Popolo, a Lombard-Gothic construction that existed in the 11th century and is often used today as a movie set.

What Oliver loves...

- The peaceful beauty of Umbria is all yours at this villa, as it is situated in an area that offers a level of seclusion that is a rarity in modern Italy.
- The extensive gym and spa facilities are a unique and unusual addition in a property of this size and style.

What you should know...

- The internet connection can be rather slow at times
- The nearest supermarket is 6km away, and the rural location dictates that a car is quite the necessity.
