

Trulli Lagorio

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 10

Overview

Immerse yourself in the rural history and culture of the Itrian valley in Puglia, and take a holiday in this restored 'trulli' house; a traditional conical-roofed stone farm building specific to the region.

Most guests choose to spend the majority of their stay lounging in the vast stone courtyard of Trulli Lagorio, surrounded by green slopes and olive groves. The garden is completed with a heated pool, with outdoor shower and paved solarium, perfectly positioned for lush views over the valley. There is also a BBQ, stone pizza oven and roof terrace perfect for al-fresco dining with a chilled glass of wine on a warm Mediterranean evening.

The high standard of this renovation is apparent throughout, with a modern kitchen with a wood burning stove, 4 double bedrooms, and Wifi internet connection throughout. The privacy afforded by the distinctive trullo layout and the multiple levels of the garden make this rental an ideal choice for a large family holiday.

What Oliver loves...

- An idyllic setting within the Itria valley, this bucolic paradise is just 5 minutes from Locorotondo, revered one of Italy's most beautiful historical villages.
- The heated swimming pool has been wonderfully renovated for 2017 and is complete with its own outdoor shower and paved solarium.
- Guests can choose to spend an evening with a local chef, making use of the fabulous pizza oven, creating your own pizzas, a fun activity for the whole family!

What you should know...

- There is no air conditioning, but these old trulli are designed with the Southern Italian climate in mind, and stay perfectly cool in the summer.
- The pool is solar-heated, so early in the season the water won't be warmed.
- Very quiet and peaceful which may get boring for teenagers.
