

Villa Condotti

Region: Umbria Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Condotti is an immaculate, modern restoration of an Umbrian stone farmhouse, with a rustic brick patio and swimming pool. Surrounded by thoughtfully maintained, landscaped gardens boasting a subtle plethora of herbs and flowers that send exotic aromas ruminating through the oak and walnut trees, and around the property.

This hilltop paradise retains all the charming characteristics of a traditional Italian villa, including terracotta floors, wood beamed high ceilings and thick stone walls. Nevertheless, the modern décor is delicately stylish, and really compliments the expansive rooms.

Guests will enjoy magical, warm evenings out on the Loggia, enjoying fine feasts prepared in the vast and well equipped kitchen, before watching the sunset over the rural, wooded valley from your own private pool. Alternatively, the library offers an array of reading material where you can curl up with a good book, or sink into one of the amazing sofas in one of the reception rooms in front of the fire.

Thinking of heading out to explore the unspoilt Umbrian countryside? The English speaking house managers will delight in helping you organise a personalised trip out in the local area that is just what you're looking for. If you'd rather keep it simple, the hilltop town of Montone is within walking distance, so you can take your morning coffee in the town square after a refreshing stroll through the surrounding countryside.

- The villa just outside the astoundingly picturesque old town of Montone, perched up on a hill top with many charming restaurants and cafes to choose from.
- The vast, modern kitchen is fantastic for cooking, and entertaining large dinner parties.

What you should know...

- There isn't much of a local nightlife in the surrounding area, as it is mostly made up of quaint historic towns.
