Location & Local Information

Located at the base of the magnificent Courchevel Moriond ski resort, L'Ours has an enviable and much-sought-after location among snow lovers. Also known as Courchevel 1650, Courchevel Moriond is a pleasant resort with well-tended slopes perfect for beginner and intermediate skiers.

To get to Courchevel Moriond, most visitors choose to fly into Geneva, followed by a car or coach transfer to the Courchevel Moriond resort. From Geneva, expect the journey to take around two and a half hours.

The Courchevel ski zone is made up of three sister zones based at different elevation points - Courchevel 1650, where L'Ours is located, gentle Courchevel 1550 and Courchevel 1850. From L'Ours, you can get to either zone with ease, either via the slopes themselves or by driving. If you haven't rented a car, don't worry as a regular bus service runs between the three zones.

Of the three zones, Courchevel 1850 is known for its more advanced runs, so if wish to visit but you're not a confident skier it may be best to drive between resorts. Within Courchevel Moriond, the majority of ski paths are flagged as either 'easy' or 'very easy', with a handful of 'difficult' runs for more advanced skiers.

While at L'Ours, your location is ideally beside one of the resort's main ski lifts, providing easy access to the slopes for all. With its proximity to the lifts and slopes, L'Ours is the perfect ski-in ski-out lodge.

Outside of winter sports, Courchevel Moriond is a great little resort to visit. The small village has everything you should need to enjoy your time at Courchevel Moriond - shops, cafes, restaurants and a well-stocked supermarket.

What we love

- We loved our time at Courchevel Moriond as the ski runs are quite simple so it was ideal for a family with different confidence levels.
- L'Ours perfectly captures that feeling of being inside a cosy log cabin during the winter, especially when the fireplace is blazing.
- Being able to upgrade to a half-board basis during our stay was really handy as we were often too tired to cook when we got in each day.
