Location & Local Information

Umbria is one of Italy's most beautiful and enchanting regions. This tranquil land of saints and ancient mystics, with its romantic countryside and its historically rich medieval hill towns, inspires a special reverence in the hearts of Italians as well as the foreigners visiting it. More than anywhere else, the region seems to represent the country's spirituality.

With less than a million inhabitants, Umbria's population density is half that of the national average, allowing ample individuality. The simple pleasures of country living, surrounded by idyllic natural beauty, is enhanced with art, architecture, and wonderful food and wine in nearby towns and cities throughout the two adjoining regions of Lazio and Tuscany.

Families spend quality time together while on holiday at Villa Colabella. Guests have a chance to relax and visit all surrounding areas full of art and history, plus they can enjoy cooking classes, wine tasting, local wineries and food producers to increase their knowledge of Italian gastronomy.
