

Robin

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 6

Overview

This farmhouse style villa in Aquitaine is perfect for a peaceful family holiday. The house is a casual, comfortable converted barn, full of beautiful old stonework and wooden beams. From this perch above the Sainte Alvère Valley the green countryside stretches out before you, full of hidden gems waiting to be discovered.

On the Dordogne River you'll find dozens of wineries near Bergerac, just a 35 minute drive away. Here you can visit the Maison des Vins, where you'll see an exhibition of the history of the 13 appellations of the Bergerac wine region. Or drive a little farther to experience famous Bordeaux region.

After a long day touring you can easily cook dinner in the updated, economical kitchen, but we recommend dining at Chez Cathy in Ste. Alvère (4 km).

If you love the outdoors, this villa holiday will be heaven. Public tennis courts can be found in Sainte Alvère, or golf is outside of Bergerac (30 km) at Chateau les Merles. A 20 minute drive will take you to Camberoux, and the nearest horseback riding stable. And if the kids are in tow, take them to the alligator show at Aquarium du Périgord Noir (18 km).

Location & Local Information

The villa is located in the Sainte Alvere valley and with easy access to the major destinations in the Dordogne department such as the historical towns of Bergerac, Sarlat and Perigueux.

Just 4 km from the village of Ste Alvère with some shops, cafés and restaurants. Also near to the riverside town of Le Bugue (the drive there is full of breath-taking scenery).

The area offers a wide array of outdoor activities, from horse-riding centres to tennis, mountain-biking, golfing and water sports. Lake and fishing opportunities are also available.

On top of it all, several local villages with lovely weekly markets, excellent restaurants and historical attractions are all located within a short driving distance.

The renowned wine tasting along the Route de Vins de Bergerac is also a must.

What we love

- The heated pool makes this villa in Aquitaine a private country paradise.
- Located in the Bergerac wine region and adjacent to Bordeaux, wine lovers will never run out of things to do (and taste).
- At the Lascaux caves in Vezere Valley you can see beautiful replicas of prehistoric cave paintings.

What you should know...

- Local village markets are everywhere! But plan carefully, they're only open certain days.
- Robin is a welcoming retreat for travellers seeking a peaceful and restorative holiday yet with easy access to the hidden gems of the Dordogne.
