Location & Local Information

Pano Stalos is a lovely traditional rural Greek village in West Chania, in the beautiful and always sunny island of Crete. Local amenities include three typical "tavernas" serving exquisite food, a minimarket and a kafenion.

The closest beach is Kato Stalos, only 3.5 km away. Here, stunning sandy beaches scattered with lively bars, restaurants and water-sport centres will make sure all your needs are catered for!

The whole island is a true heaven on earth, steeped in history and mythology, with breath-taking landscapes and very friendly population.
