

Villa Paparouna

Region: Sivota Sleeps: 4

Overview

Villa Paparouna is situated in an excellent position in the beautiful town of Syvota, just a short stroll from Bella Vraka beach and all local amenities.

The modern villa offers versatile accommodation which would suit couples holidaying together or families with older children in particular. It is clear that the villa has been designed with style in mind, the plush furnishings help to give it a trendy and cool feel. The two bedroom villa offers spacious and open-plan accommodation, it benefits from a well equipped kitchen with all modern appliances, lounge area with an LCD flat screen TV and air conditioning throughout.

Outside, the stylish feel continues, there is plenty of seating complete with barbecue, making it the perfect location for alfresco dining. The large private pool, which is overlooked by plenty of sunloungers, is great for enjoying the views.

The bedroom configuration involves one being in a self-contained annexe on the 'lower' ground floor, while the second master bedroom is on the second (top) floor. While this may suit families with older children or teenagers, it may be more difficult for those with young children. The annexe area is part of the villa and can be accessed through interior doors but these doors can also be shut off if needed.*

Location & Local Information

Syvota, a charming coastal village nestled on the northwest coast of Greece, is a hidden gem that captures the essence of Greek beauty and tranquility. Surrounded by lush green hills and the azure waters of the Ionian Sea, Syvota boasts a breathtaking landscape that leaves visitors in awe.

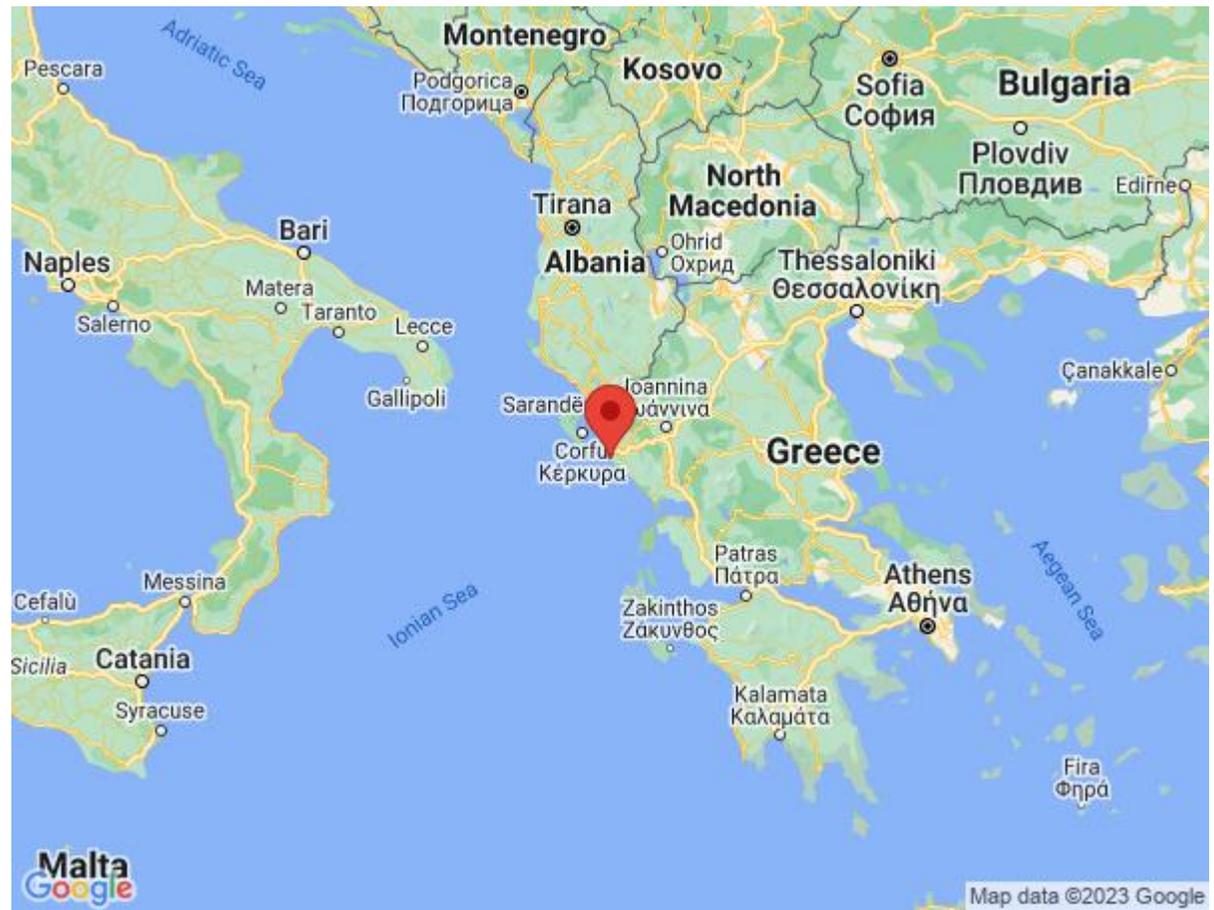

The village exudes a laid-back and traditional ambiance, making it a perfect retreat for those seeking an authentic Greek experience. Whitewashed houses adorned with vibrant flowers line narrow cobblestone streets, leading down to the picturesque harbor. This harbor is the heart of the village, bustling with colorful fishing boats and luxurious yachts. Its waterfront tavernas offer a taste of local cuisine, where visitors can savor freshly caught seafood while gazing at the sun setting over the horizon.

Nature enthusiasts are drawn to Syvota for its stunning beaches and crystal-clear waters. Famous for its Blue Lagoon, a secluded cove with shimmering turquoise waters, the village is an ideal destination for swimming, snorkeling, and exploring hidden caves.

Whether strolling through its quaint streets, indulging in the warmth of the Mediterranean sun on its beaches, or admiring the harmonious blend of nature and architecture, Syvota casts a spell that lingers in the hearts of all who visit—a testament to the timeless allure of Greece's coastal treasures.
