Location & Local Information

It's tempting to stay by the pool, and enjoy the view and those spectacular sunsets.

Santorini is an Instagramers dream so you need to get out to explore. The beaches are legendary, but the Red Beach is probably the most amazing. You should visit the idyllic town of Ola with views over volcano of Palia and Nea Kameni islands.

You should do at least one tour. If you like walking, the Caldera path between Fira and Oia is a must-do; some tours cover this. There are wine tours, boat tours, such as sunset or a volcano one, where you can pool and towns to visit. Greek food is always good, but the mashed Fava bean, 'hummus' is one of Santorini's best local foods. Santorini's Cherry tomatoes are unique, so much so they have a museum dedicated to them. Also, try the Tomato Keftedes (Tomato balls). Unsurprisingly the local fish and seafood is good too. Finally, there is Melitina, hand-prepared pasty stuffed with local soft cheese called "anthotyro" or "myzithra". They are only made in Santorini, and they are a delicious dessert!

What we love

- Excellent location in the village of Imerovigli close to the capital Fira where a larger range of amenities can be found
- The villa has a range of excellent facilities meaning guests will never be bored!
- Look out for Santorini's White Aubergines. There is a fabulous meze, 'melitzanosalata, a paste made from these delicacies.
- The villa enjoys a unique spot, and the most fabulous sunsets.

What you should know...

- While the villa is in an excellent location we recommend hiring a car to fully explore the area
- Santorini's towns are hilly and many streets cobbled, so not great for anyone with mobility issues.
