

Villa Mitera Gi

Region: Santorini Sleeps: 6 - 7

Overview

Villa Mitera Gi is set in a fabulous position offering guests phenomenal volcano views. Holding an excellent location in the village of Imerovigli, amenities including a range of shops and restaurants are just a short stroll away. The villa was once a working bakery but has been lovingly transformed into a perfect hideaway, fantastic for couples or a group of friends.

The accommodation is set out over two caves connected by an exterior staircase. On the upper level is a living room, dining area and fully-equipped kitchen. There is also a queen-size double bedroom and a further double or twin room both complete with en-suite bathrooms. There is also access to a balcony area where the impressive views can be enjoyed.

On the lower level, which is accessed by the exterior staircase is a king-size double bedroom boasting ensuite bathroom. As well as a second living and kitchen area. From this level there is access to a second terrace, here there is a jacuzzi plunge pool which is the perfect spot for soaking up the tranquil surroundings.

The villa comfortably sleeps six guests, however if necessary there is a sofa bed which can accommodate an additional guest. Please note that there is an additional charge of €50 per person per night for this.*
