Location & Local Information

Situated in the rural location of Mallorca's countryside sits this villa. Within a short drive you will find the picturesque Porto Colom. Porto Colom is a haven for those who love traditional Spanish tapas, with plenty of restaurants and bars to choose from. The sandy beaches and coves of Cala Sanau are also close by too.

Situated a short drive away is the larger town of Cala d'Or, which has a vast array of restaurants, boutique shops, bars and wonderful beach coves too.

Cala d'Or – or the 'Golden Bay' – is a popular beach area on the southeast coast of Mallorca, south of Portocolom and neighbouring the coastal town of Portopetro. In Cala d'Or you really get an all-round holiday experience with wonderful beaches, interesting excursions, well-preserved nature and a varied nightlife.

Cala d'Or is an excellent spot for a beach holiday thanks to its impressive facilities and wonderful beaches. Huge fun is the mini 'train' which runs along the roads for holidaymakers between the main resort and beaches. The town is also a great base for exploring some of the best natural and historical sightseeing that southeast Mallorca has to offer.

The 18th-century historic fort 'Es Fortí' – a protected cultural heritage site of the Balearic Islands – is within walking distance and, with its cannons and loopholes, is also an exciting place for children to visit. On the way there you can also enjoy some of Mallorca's more rugged coastal landscape.
