

Villa Anatoli

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Anatoli holds a fabulous position on the north-east corner of Corfu, just a few minutes' car journey away from the popular resorts of Kassiopi, San Stephano and Acharavi. It is situated in a private, undisturbed location surrounded by olive groves and boasts impressive views over the sparkling Ionian Sea.

The spacious villa has been lovingly furnished to give it a homely and cosy feel. It comfortably sleeps up to ten guests across five beautiful bedrooms, laid out over the main house and pool annexe. In the main house, on the ground floor, is the main living accommodation which comprises of a drawing room, fully-equipped kitchen and dining room centred around an open courtyard. Also on this level, are two of the double bedrooms, both complete with en-suite bathrooms. Both of the bedrooms have access to the terrace and as a result boast beautiful views. Upstairs, are a further two double bedrooms, again both with en-suites and access to a large private terrace. In the pool annexe, is a further double bedroom, bathroom and additional kitchenette.

Outside, the luxurious infinity-style private pool is the perfect place to soak up the Corfu sunshine while enjoying the spectacular scenery. There are plenty of outdoor dining areas, perfect for those who wish to make the most of dining al fresco! The Boule pitch offers many evenings of good competition.

A stone stairway up from the pool opens to a covered folly with a 360° view to the Islands in the distance, Albania and the whole of the North Corfu Coast. Perfect for sunset cocktails or a peaceful yoga retreat. A five minute walk or drive on a private road down to the sea leads to a glorious swimming platform for those who like swimming in the glorious clear aquamarine waters.
