

Villa Orea Thea

Region: Heraklion Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Orea Thea holds a fabulous location in the Palaiokastro area of the island, close to Heraklion, Crete's capital, situated on a peaceful bay overlooking the sparkling Aegean Sea with the lights of the city in the distance. The villa is close to the charming resort of Agia Pelagia; this relaxed fishing village is great for families and boasts a handy selection of amenities including restaurants, tavernas and a sandy beach perfect for snorkelling. Heraklion itself is only a short car journey away and offers a wider variety of nightlife, with plenty of choice in bars and clubs.

The modern villa can sleep up to six guests across three beautiful bedrooms. On the ground floor is the spacious living accommodation comprising of an open-plan living and dining room with sliding patio doors helping to bring the beautiful outside and sunshine in! Also on this level is a fully-equipped fitted kitchen complete with all the necessary modern amenities for a more than comfortable stay. Upstairs, on the first floor, is the master double bedroom which boasts spectacular views out to sea as well as a luxury en-suite bathroom with a jacuzzi bathtub, the perfect place to soak after a long day of sightseeing! Also on this level are the further two double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the gardens are as equally beautiful. The private infinity-style pool is a picture-perfect spot from which to soak up the sunshine while admiring the impressive sea views with Heraklion in the distance. The covered dining area, which is complete with a built-in barbecue, is fantastic for those who enjoy al fresco dining, the comfy sofas are the perfect spot to spend a lazy evening with a cool drink while admiring the night-time views over the bright lights of the city.

What we love

- The cliffside location of the villa gives it breathtaking views which can be enjoyed from the whirlpool section of the private infinity swimming pool
- The archaeological site of Knossos Palace makes a fantastic day out and is just a twenty-minute car journey away, it really is a must-visit but prepare for crowds as it can get very busy in the Summer months!
- The owner can organise tailor-made daily boating/yacht trips to Dia Island and the Elounda area on a request basis, this is a fantastic way to enjoy the spectacular scenery!
- Villa Olea Thea is perfect for remote working, with high speed internet and the option to rent large computer screens, cable connectors and any office equipment required
- Villa Orea Thea has had a refurbishment, new photos to follow...

What you should know...

- Due to the spectacular cliffside location of the villa and infinity pool, very young children shouldn't be left to explore the garden by themselves
- While the villa is in an excellent location, please be aware that hiring car will be necessary in order to reach near-by amenities and attractions
