

Trulli Lavanda

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 7

Overview

Trulli Lavanda dates back to 1769 and has 5 authentic stone cone roofs, unique to the region. Situated only 3km from the centre of the traditional town of Castellana Grotte in a tranquil countryside location, Trulli Lavanda offers guests a unique and peaceful holiday base in Puglia whilst being a short distance from the amenities.

This beautiful villa lies in a large garden, full of jasmine, roses, olive trees and of course lavender helping to create a touch of colour and fragrance. The location of this Trulli means that the temperature stays cooler all year round and is not too humid.

Situated all on one level, Trulli Lavanda can sleep up to 7 guests in 3 bedrooms and an additional sofa bed in the living room. There are masses of character throughout, the owners have lovingly restored the property keeping many of the traditional features whilst incorporating all modern conveniences. The spacious kitchen with large windows overlooking the pool provides guests with a great place to enjoy a home cooked meal.

Head outside to appreciate outdoor living. The private swimming pool is the perfect place for the whole family to enjoy. There are plenty of sun loungers, beds and soft furnishings to relax on. There is also a handy outdoor shower and W/C located adjacent to the pool.

You will also love the alfresco kitchen, complete with a barbecue. Here you can cook up a storm and enjoy dining outside at any time of the day.

Trulli Lavanda really is a unique and a truly special place to spend a holiday in Puglia!
