

Quinta Cahombo

Region: Vilamoura Sleeps: 12

Overview

Careful craftsmanship and skilled architectural design by the renowned architect Vasco Vieira, have ensured that the construction of Quinta Cahombo not only blends in with the other villas built in this exclusive sought after enclave, but we firmly believe it is one of the best.

This is a stylish, contemporary and sumptuous villa that simply emanates finesse and style. From the rather imposing living room with its high ceilings and numerous floor to ceiling windows, through to the stylishly furnished en-suite bedrooms, Quinta Cahombo is utterly gorgeous in every way. The open plan living space and all six en-suite bedrooms ooze class and sophistication, a little like the resort of Vilamoura itself!

The exteriors are no less extravagant, with a larger than average private swimming pool, as well as an equally fabulous adjacent kids paddling pool in similar proportions commanding centre stage in this idyllic space. The children will love the attractive lawned gardens, where impromptu games of football and rounders can be enjoyed, and when the weather gets too hot in the middle of the day, they can then retreat indoors to the lavishly equipped games room where they will find a ping pong table, billiard table, table football and darts. For the grown-ups, the thoughtful owners have put in a relaxing hot tub, the perfect way to end the day with a refreshing drink of something chilled!

Should you ever wish to tear yourself away from this idyllic haven, then the cosmopolitan resort of Vilamoura awaits where you will find a vast and eclectic assortment of restaurants, boutique shops and cafes to suit everyone. And for beach/sun worshipers, you could not choose a better location, as this privileged part of the Algarve coastline boasts vast stretches of family friendly beaches.
