

Villa Begonia

Region: Pollensa Sleeps: 6

Overview

Nestled in the Pollença Hills is one of the most charming and secluded farmhouse in Mallorca. The villa is surrounded by the outstanding Son March valley, breath taking views of the undulating countryside and views of pine clad mountains.

The 300 year old farmhouse is a peaceful haven for those in search of a private and peaceful retreat. Villa Begonia is the perfect villa to feel immersed in traditional Mallorca with its mellow coloured stone affording an idyllic relaxing setting for the whole family.

The farmhouse offers a rustic and relaxed charm with colourful Mallorcan terracotta coloured walls, local crafted fabrics, interior stone wall features and an abundance of oak beamed ceilings.

The fully refurbished farmhouse does however still allow guests to benefit from all modern conveniences including air conditioning in all the bedrooms.

Villa Begonia encourages guests to enjoy fresh BBQ's, refreshing dips in the pool or sun downers on the terrace all while taking full advantage of the outstanding views

Location & Local Information

We are extremely proud to offer a comprehensive selection of properties here on the wonderfully diverse and beautiful island of Mallorca. Many of our handpicked selection of villas are situated in close proximity to family friendly sandy beaches, breath taking mountain landscapes, peaceful countryside, spectacular coastlines, buzzing resorts and a wonderful capital city.

With many of our villas offering spectacular views of the sparkling coastline, as well as the dramatic mountainous headlands and an abundance of sites of historic interest, Mallorca is simply perfect for culture cravers! With the island's rich historical heritage, a villa holiday in Mallorca offers visitors a chance to explore the many ancient settlements and seek out all of its hidden treasures. It really is an amazing, cultural and picturesque destination.

There are also plenty of opportunities to play a round of golf whilst holidaying in Mallorca where you will discover some excellent championship golf courses, with no less than 23 courses on the island, offering a variety of different challenges for the keen golfer.

Attracting visitors from far afield, the popular weekly market in Pollensa is a particular delight and takes place every Sunday morning in the town's main square. Offering up an abundance of regional goods and produce, from fruit and vegetables to antiques and handicrafts, the market also provides a good reason to sit in one of the many bars or cafes and have some tasty tapas and thirst-quenching refreshments.

Along with vast promenades and marina, the popular seaside resorts of Puerto Pollensa, Alcudia and Cala D'or all offer a vast and eclectic selection of places to eat, drink and relax, as well as offering some wonderful family friendly beaches.

For nature lovers, a holiday in Mallorca presents the perfect opportunity to view the abundance of nature that Mallorca is renowned for. Cycle trails, which take you from the beachfront to the mountainside, are an excellent way to view the island. Bicycles are available to hire locally from around €8 to €20 per day.

Just a short drive away from your villa you will find the 'Parc Natural de S'Albufera', a wildlife reserve housing thousands of wild plant and bird species. If you're an animal lover, then one of our luxury villas in Mallorca provides the perfect base from which to enjoy this stunning menagerie.
