

Villa Terracotta

Region: Palafrugell Sleeps: 6 - 8

Overview

The bold and bright villa terracotta, located just outside Palafrugell, is your ideal base for a family holiday in Costa Brava. Just a short drive from the very popular Calella de Palafrugell and Llafranc coastal towns and within easy reach of some of the most beautiful calas and beaches in the area, there is no better base to explore the wonders of this magical region.

The newly designed modern villa offers a stylish interior and a fun, carefree atmosphere, perfect for relaxed holidays with friends and family. It's "L" shape around the pool means all rooms in the house (including all bedrooms) have direct access to the lush gardens, pool and common seating areas outside.

The single-level airy house comprises of a spacious open living room and kitchen with very high ceilings and sliding glass doors throughout. From the living room, you have access to the loft area via a chic glass staircase. The loft is a calm area ideal for reading and boasts an exceptional view of the region.

Villa Terracotta can accommodate up to 8 guests in 4 bedrooms. There is a delightful master bedroom with private luxury shower room. One further double bedroom and two single rooms with bunk beds are also available. These three rooms all share a bathroom.

Outside the fun never stops! A great pool with a shallow level for the little ones, perfect green grass and decks around, a dining table in the terrace and a separate covered seated area ideal for long evening dinners, plus a large games area in the back equipped with a ping-pong table, a basketball hoop and a trampoline!

Location & Local Information

Villa Terracotta is located in one of the most desirable areas in the Costa Brava, just a few minutes from the town of Palafrugell and 15min from the famous beaches of Calella de Palafrugell, Llafranc and Tamariu.

According to the British Telegraph newspaper, the beach at Tamariu ranks as one of the best beaches on the Costa Brava. Embraced by pine-clad headlands, the horseshoe-shaped beach is very pretty, family-friendly and sheltered.

Just behind the beach is the pedestrian promenade, where there are some cafes, restaurants and beach gear shops. Parents can happily while away a little time in the shade, sipping whatever they fancy, with their children, only yards away from them, play safely on the sand.

It probably won't be the first time you've heard of it, in this neck of the woods, but Tamariu was originally a small fishing village. It has definitely retained some of its charm and identity, and its beautiful south facing sandy bay offers a romantic destination for lovers. It's also a good choice for families seeking a quieter Costa Brava resort.

The activity in the village will peak in August, but as yet there aren't any English bars or breakfasts. Neither are there high-rise hotels on the landscape, only a blend of greens, blues and sandy shades with pretty whitewashed buildings in the foreground.

What Oliver loves...

- There is never a dull moment at Villa Terracotta. Enjoy a refreshing dip in the pool, shoot some hoops or challenge the family to a game of table tennis
- The comfortable outside covered seated area offers the perfect place to unwind after a day at the beaches
- It's only 15min to some of the most spectacular and child-friendly beaches in Spain (Calella de Palafrugell and Tamariu to name a few)
- Nearby inland towns of Begur and Peratallada are not to be missed either!

What you should know...

- All bedrooms have direct access to the garden and pool. Those travelling with small children should take care to lock the door at night. Good thing is that you can see the pool from every room in the house!
- The feature staircase while being stunning must be mounted with care and attention due to its open nature.
- A car is a must, but then again you really want to explore all that Costa Brava has to offer!
