

Trulli Gabriella

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 2

Overview

Trulli Gabriella is the ultimate destination for a romantic getaway. The villa is a traditional dry stone house found only in this hidden region of Puglia. Trulli Gabriella is abundant with charm owing to the well preserved authenticity of cute alcoves, a conical shaped roof and spires.

This Trulli has been recently renovated to a very high standard. Much care has been taken to respect and preserve the tradition of Apulian rural architecture, thus allowing for the combination of luxury and tradition.

The villa is perfect for a couple wanting a romantic getaway, however, there is also a sofa bed available for two children or an adult if you would like extra guests. The interior has all the necessities you could require, with a fully fitted kitchen, open plan living area with a TV and Wi-Fi, large master bedroom and shower room.

Making this villa even more unforgettable are the private grounds with a large private pool, terraces for al fresco dining and early evening aperitivo whilst watching the sun set. Within the grounds there are also plenty of fruit trees which you can enjoy at your leisure, a real treat, especially in May and June when the fruit is in season and ready to pick.

Puglia is often referred to as Italy's best kept secret, hidden away in the heel of the boot, with beautiful beaches, delicious wines, fresh produce and locally produced olive oils.

Location & Local Information

Castellana Grotte

A tiny village on the hillside top of Murgia, internationally known for its caves, a unique example of Apulian Karstic caves in Southern Apulia. In summer, it's pleasant to stroll down the alleys of the historic centre or the surrounding countryside to enjoy the cool evening air after a sunny day out.

Alberobello

This picturesque villa in Puglia is a popular and important fixture on travellers itineraries. Alberobello is filled with Trulli buildings which are unique to the area.

Monopoli

A charming seaside town populated with shops and gorgeous buildings in a historic centre which faces the sea. 10 to 20 minutes driving distance from most Villas, it is an ideal location to spend half a day enjoying an aperitif or a dinner on sea-view terraces.

Polignano A Mare

A must-visit town in Apulia, historic town offering stunning sea views. Ideal for walking, diving, swimming or enjoying good food by the sea

Matera

Matera is one of the most interesting, unusual and memorable tourist destinations in South Italy. At the immediate border of Puglia going west, in the region of Basilicata (also known as Lucania), it is famous for its extensive cave-dwelling districts, the sassi. Wander along the lanes alongside the picturesque cave-filled cliffs, and learn the history of this unique fascinating place. Awarded with the title of European Capital of Culture 2019, it's definitely worth a full day visit.
