Also, here you will find a lovely chill-out spot in the shade of a large overhanging tree, perfect for quick naps in the warm breeze or a spot of meditation and mindfulness.

The gorgeous private pool must be mentioned too, as the cool blue glistening water will provide not only relief from the warm sun but also endless fun! You can take a dip here any time, too, as outside, there is stunning night lighting that bathes the area in romantic colours.

Location & Local Information

One massive benefit of Ibiza is that the island is small but mighty. If you were to drive from the top of the island to the bottom, it would only take an hour and 30 minutes to drive from one side to the other. If you want to explore the broader area of Ibiza, renting a car and taking day trips to each island corner would let you experience every part of it during your stay. It is highly recommended you do as the island has so much on offer in such easy reach!

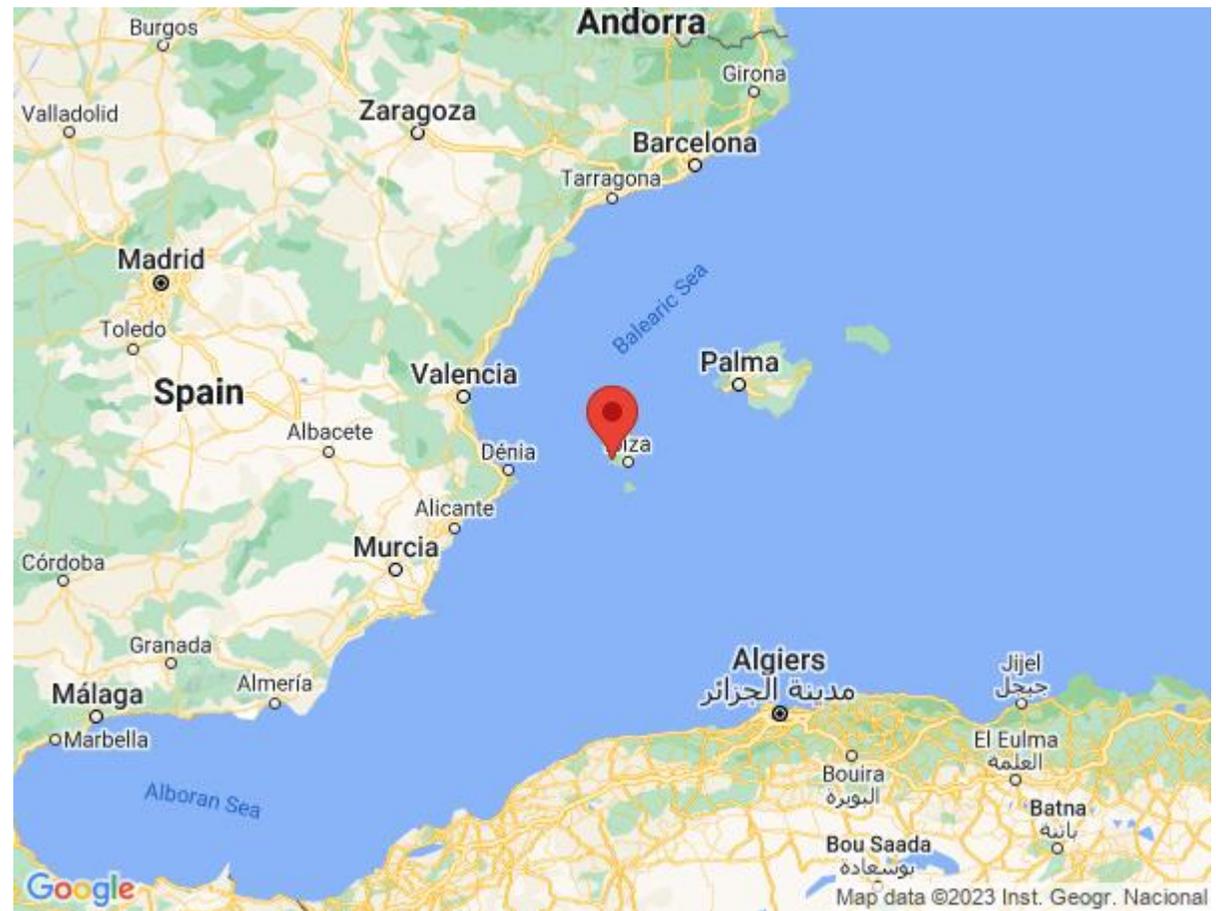

Head 20 minutes north to San Antonio and the Sunset Strip, where you can taste Ibiza's fantastic nightlife. The beach is just one example of Ibiza's many beautiful sandy beaches, with warm sand and clear waters inviting you in. The promenade stretches from the harbour to Caló des Moro beach, making it the perfect spot for dinner and an evening stroll. The incredible multicoloured sunset makes the area one of the island's most popular spots and is a must visit during your stay.

The San Jose area sits at the foot of the island's highest mountain, Sa Talaia – 475m tall! The area's main street has a large range of shops, restaurants, and bars for you to enjoy. Also, here you will find a large church that is a crucial point of the area, where you can find a spot in the shaded courtyard and take a moment to relax and enjoy your surroundings.

Every Saturday in San Jose, there is a lovely crafts market in the village centre with a selection of local seller's crafts, pastries and produce. Also on offer are a selection of paintings, ceramics and sculptures made by the locals.

If you're a fan of nightlife, Ibiza is, of course, famous for its club scene. Two big hitters of the island are Amnesia and Privilege, which draw many holidaymakers each year. Although these are just two of the island's most famous nightlife spots, you will surely find many more to enjoy and let your hair down!

Ibiza restaurants are known to serve food influenced by the entire globe, so there is always something to eat on offer. The nearest restaurant to Villa Tarida is S'Espartar Restaurant, just 800m from the doors. A 5-minute drive will take you to El Silencio Ibiza, a restaurant on the beach where you can enjoy your meal with the sound of the ocean and an incredible view. If you wish to use Villa Tarida's fully equipped kitchen or simply stock up on snacks, there are also a number of supermarkets a short drive from the villa.
