

Trulli Di Olive

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 8

Overview

Trulli Di Olive holds a fantastic rural location, in a tranquil setting in the heart of an olive grove, while still being close to a selection of attractions and amenities. A range of popular towns and villages, including Ostuni and Alberobello, are just a short car journey away. Beautiful beaches on both the Adriatic and Ionian coastlines are easily reachable and just waiting to be explored!

Original 'Trulli' have been interconnected and renovated with high attention to detail. The luxurious interiors and stylish designer-iron industrial fixtures and fittings (i.e. exposed lead piping and radiators), effortlessly blend with the exposed rustic stone walls and traditional furnishings, to help give it an ultra-modern and minimalist twist while still helping retain its unique 'Pugliese' character.

The real wow factor can be found in the state-of-the-art glass cube room, the perfect spot for guests to relax on a comfy bean bag while admiring the surroundings. The accommodation is connected by a network of above-ground tunnels and can sleep up to a maximum of eight guests across three bedrooms, each with access to the gorgeous outside space. There are two double bedrooms, one of which boasting an en-suite bathroom, and an additional room with two double beds, one bed situated in an alcove making it a fantastic family room.

Outside, the 20-meter-long saltwater private pool, beautifully framed by lush olive trees, is great for those wanting to take a dip and cool off in the warm Italian sunshine. For those looking to indulge in a spot of al fresco dining, as well as dining facilities, there is a great unique cooking space complete with quarry-stone barbecue and wood-burning stove oven. While the adults are busy cooking up a storm there is plenty to keep the kids entertained with a trampoline and even a small football field complete with goals. Trulli Di Olive really is the perfect choice of base for families looking to explore fabulous Puglia and all that it has to offer!
