

Villa Alina

Region: Alcudia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Alina combines beautiful character with all the modern amenities you could need in a great location nearby the beaches. The three-bedroom house sleeps 6 people, spread over two levels, with superb outdoor space perfect for families.

Once inside the villa has a calming ambience, with light and spacious living areas and tasteful furnishings, the atmosphere is one of a home away from home, making it easy to relax from the moment you enter the door. The open plan living/dining area provides ample space, should you decide to relax or dine inside, with a character fireplace. The kitchen provides the opportunity for you to try your hand at some Spanish classics! On this ground floor, there are also two good sized double bedrooms which share a full bathroom. Moving to the first floor, there is a third double bedroom with an ensuite. The property offers enough space so you can both socialise and find some time to yourself.

The outdoor space of this villa is something special, with fantastic, desirable views of the Bay of Pollensa and the mountains of the Serra de Tramontana. It is hard to look away, so the beautiful covered terrace and pool area become the ideal spot to spend the days reading your books or enjoying an aperitif or two whilst enjoying the magical sunset over the evening sky. The pool is hard to resist and is perfect for cooling off in the warm Spanish climate. If you're a fan of al-fresco dining, there is a barbecue, so you can cook up a feast of fresh local fish!

Villa Alina is very well equipped to make your stay as easy and relaxing as possible. The house is situated on top of a small promontory near the road that connects the towns of Sa Pobla and Alcudia, which is close both to the beaches of Alcudia and those of Pollensa.
