

Bambu Luxury Tent

Region: Malaga Sleeps: 2

Overview

In the heart of rural Andalucia, just a short drive from one of the area's prettiest pueblos blancos, Bambu Luxury Tent offers the perfect combination of romance, privacy and a very personal service.

The property itself is set in an intimate and upmarket retreats of tropical gardens dotted with just 3 luxurious properties (each sleeping 2 people, so there will be a maximum of 6 guests resident at any given time) just five minutes drive from the village of Casares.

The retreat boasts a beautiful swimming pool, honesty bar, sauna with hammam and the Woodland spa offering a variety of treatments to indulge you. The family-run retreat has been created with an eye for detail and a desire to offer unique and luxurious holiday homes in a beautiful natural setting of pines and flowers. The more energetic will enjoy the tennis court or gym on site whilst others may just choose a book from the library and relax in the peaceful surroundings.

This really is a luxurious property and arguably one of the most luxurious and private retreats in Europe. The décor and style gives you feelings of grandeur and elegance, you are even greeted with champagne and a scent of your choice on arrival. It is no surprise that every comfort has been thought of with great attention to detail – a pillow menu for your king-size bed, luxurious toiletries for your beautiful bath tub in the bedroom and comfortable seating inside.

The vast gardens have the most breath-taking views towards Gibraltar and the North African coast, you can also see the beauty of Casares itself. There is ample space outside to enjoy your breakfast that is served to you daily and there is a romantic hot tub right on the cliff's edge with more glorious views. Enjoy a glass of something from your complimentary mini-bar which is re-stocked daily. You will feel like true royalty.

Car hire is a must due to the rural location of the retreat but the owners can arrange taxis for you so you can enjoy wining and dining in some of the superb local restaurants, such as Venta Victoria which has been serving local Andalucian delights since 1946.

If you can tear yourself away from your holiday home or the facilities and personalised services that the intimate retreat offers then there is so much to explore. Within five minutes by car you can be in one of Andalucia's prettiest white-washed villages, Casares. Park at the bottom and climb the steep and winding narrow passageways to the medieval fortress at the top and you will be rewarded with more stunning views. Alternatively drive a little further to explore other Pueblos Blancos such as Gaucin and Ronda, enjoying the spectacular scenery on the narrow and winding roads so typical of the area.

Despite its rural ambience and location you are only twenty minutes drive from the coastline of the Costa del Sol and the clean and well kept beaches of Estepona, Marbella and beyond. Continue on to Gibraltar for an interesting day trip or drive a little further to explore the less discovered Costa de la Luz. Day trips to bustling Morocco are also possible if you can bring yourself to leave the tranquillity of rural Andalucia.

Location & Local Information

Located 500m above sea-level, with stunning panoramic views of Gibraltar and across the sea to the North African coast, Bambu Luxury Tent offers you stunning accommodation in a beautiful countryside setting just a short drive from one of the regions prettiest Pueblos Blancos, Casares.

The tent itself is set in an intimate and upmarket resort of tropical gardens dotted with luxurious tents, casitas and villas, just five minutes drive from the village of Casares. Park your car at the bottom of the village for a picture postcard view of the white-washed casitas, then climb the steep, narrow cobbled streets where you will be rewarded with stunning coastal views from the medieval fortress perching on top of Casares. The village is dotted with narrow passages, pretty archways and tumbling bougainvillea whilst the Bermeja mountains act as a stunning backdrop.

The village square, Plaza de Espana, is a focal point during one of the village's many festivals, such as the week long Feria of music and dancing into the night during the first week of August or the autumnal wine and 'feast of Virgin' festivals.

Despite its rural ambience and location Casares is just fifteen minutes from the coastline with the clean beaches around Estepona worth a day trip or two, or continue west to visit Gibraltar and the atlantic Costa de la Luz. Alternatively, remain rural and drive north to the white-washed village of Gaucin or head further to beautiful Ronda with its stunning gorge. Day trips by boat to Morocco are possible too if you can tear yourself away from the peace and tranquillity of rural Andalucia.

This area is a walkers paradise, especially in the spring months when wild flowers carpet the land. The countryside around Casares is known for the diversity of its landscapes and wildlife and it is part of the Andalusian Network of Protected Natural Areas.
