

Mikula Apartment

Region: Zadar Sleeps: 4

Overview

In a simply stunning and very romantic location right on the water front, one bedroom Mikula Apartment, with its amazing sea-views and jacuzzi whirlpool, would be a perfect spot for a couple looking for a very special holiday.

The apartment has been finished to a very high standard with great attention to detail, so typical of the owners who also look after the neighbouring luxurious villas. The bright and airy kitchen-diner-living room has three sets of French windows opening up to a beautiful terrace with stunning views of Novigradsko sea. Steps lead down to a spectacular decked area on the waterfront with sunloungers and direct access to the clear blue water and a boat landing.

The double bedroom has bright splashes of colour to match the otherwise clean décor and has an ensuite shower room for guests use. There is also a sauna outside to add another luxurious touch with yet more sea-views from its windows.

The outdoor jacuzzi is a perfect spot for cooling down on hot summer days and the characterful stone terraces mean dining al-fresco, with a glass or two of local wine, will be yet another memorable experience.

The owner's principle is 'Delight for the Soul and Spirit' and they aim to ensure that every guest is well looked after and every need met. Various services can be offered at an additional cost to the highest of standards from shopping on arrival, daily breakfasts delivered, concierge assistance, personal trainer to a private chef to prepare any of your meals. The chef will even host a special Croatian evening of local food and wine for you for a truly authentic event.

It will be hard to leave your apartment yet the small, tranquil village of Posedarje is just a short distance away where you will find a local supermarket and a restaurant serving typically Dalmatian cuisine. Dating back to the 12th century the village has a long history and tradition and is now known for its fishing, local cuisine and the pretty gothic church of St. Spirit on an islet with a beautiful mountain backdrop. The area boasts sandy and pebbly beaches, some backed by dense pine forests offering shade from the midday sun.

Location & Local Information

The small, tranquil village of Posedarje is just a short distance away where you will find a local supermarket and a restaurant serving typically Dalmatian cuisine. Dating back to the 12th century the village has a long history and tradition and is now known for its fishing, local cuisine and the pretty gothic church of St. Spirit on an islet with a beautiful mountain backdrop. The area boasts a mixture of sand-pebbly beaches, some backed by dense pine forests offering shade from the midday sun.

The vibrant and historic walled town of Zadar is just twenty kilometres away. As well as being a transport hub for ferry connections to nearby islands, it boasts medieval churches, pretty cafes and the well visited Sea Organ, several stairs descending to the sea with pipes and whistles playing various chords and tones. Take a boat trip across the harbour, find elderly ladies selling local cheese in the markets or visit the roman ruins, some stones of which have been used to build the beautiful 9th century St Donat's Church. The town has a young, vibrant energy and feels far away from the more sun-seeking crowds of the southern Dalmatian coast.

The owners of the apartment can arrange an exclusive boat trip around the stunning Kornati National Park, a unique cluster of 150 islands, islets and cliffs spread over the central part of the Adriatic Sea, a must see for keen boaters and wanderers.

If you love walking then the Paklenica National Park offers wonderful hiking through a naturally diverse area of cliffs, caverns, caves and unusual rock formations. Nature lovers can look out for the 82 species of butterfly, 200 species of birds and 800 plant species, plus there are protected serpent eagles and griffon vultures. The park is also home to brown bears, wild cats, wolves and lynxes.
