

Casa Cascais

Region: Lisbon Sleeps: 18

Overview

The beautiful villa sits just outside the center of the very chic seaside town of Cascais on the west coast of Lisbon. Formally a small fishing village, there is still a lot of history to be found in the stunning city and surrounding area. Close by is two beaches, one small and very well protected beach and one larger, which is perfect for wind surfing among other water sports and attracts lots of competitions over the course of the year.

The villa is situated in a residential area allowing you to get a real taste of Portuguese culture while still being in complete luxury. Surrounded by lots of shops and gourmet restaurants only 1km away, this is the perfect break to spoil yourself and go a little over budget.

Round the back of the villa is a 2000m2 garden with an amazing playground for the children to enjoy and a 9 meter oval swimming pool, while also having a covered porch with lounge, dining area under a pergola allowing adults to relax in complete comfort.

Also available for the guests is a BBQ, table tennis and children toys to make sure that this holiday is made that little bit more special.

Location & Local Information

Casa Cascais is perfectly located 3km away from the center of Cascais meaning it's far enough away to be private but also close enough to the center to allow guests to experience the culture of Portugal.

Praia do Gunicho is the closest beach to the villa being 3km away. This beach is huge and is popular for kite surfers and wind surfers with many competitions being held at the beach.

The villa is only 30km away from Lisbon meaning that it is close enough to have a day/night out that you will not forget!

Also the paths of the Parque Natural de Sintra are simply unmissable experience for the guests that love nature!

What Oliver loves...

- Close to the town of Cascais where you will find lots to do and tons of amazing restaurants
- The private car park is huge! you can park six cars comfortably

What you should know...

- While the property is in the perfect location for a relaxing holiday, I would recommend renting a car if you are looking to go into Lisbon as it is a bit too far to walk!
