

Villa Margareta

Region: Trogir Sleeps: 12 - 15

Overview

Immerse yourself in decadent luxury in the magnificent Villa Margareta.

This huge villa sleeps up to 15 people so is perfect for large groups of friends and families alike. The villa itself is located in the picturesque location of Kaštel Lukšić, offering guests a wealth of activities and adventures daily. Whether you wish to go for a hike, bike ride, cultural tour or simply relax on the beach, this area has it all.

If you or your guests don't feel like exploring, the Villa Margareta is just overflowing with things to do, providing something for every member of the family starting of course, with the massive outdoor pool! This pool is easily accessed by the built in roman steps and there is enough room here for the whole group. Surrounding the pool is a slew of natural greenery and plenty of sun loungers for guests to dry off on.

For younger guests there is also a large outdoor play area featuring a modern climbing frame, a great way to burn off excess energy after the pool. For adults, there is the stunning addition of the sauna which is an indulgent way to unwind after a lively day of exploring.

The home itself is set across three floors and contains six bedrooms and six bathrooms. Each bedroom is spacious, well planned and finished to a very high quality. The overall theme of the house follows the natural brown and ivory hues creating an atmosphere of calm and warm serenity.

Location & Local Information

Kaštel Lukšić?

Kaštel Lukšić? is one of seven Kastel's located between the ever popular destinations of Trogir and Split. The town itself is settled in the gorgeously rich flatlands formerly known as Kastel Vitturi after the Trogir noble family who founded it back in the 15th century.

With such a grand cultural heritage, Kaštel Lukšić? has plenty of historical monuments throughout, fantastic for exploration and education. Discover churches, castles and museums, all surrounded by stunning nature and scenery.

This region is also famed for its expanse of idyllic beaches, so when you wish to take a break from your historical tour, there are many places to lay back and soak up the sunshine. For something a little more exciting, there are plenty of events hosted here throughout the year. The most energetic being the cultural summer festivities which consists of 60 different events! This runs all summer long and has something for everyone from fishing and music to folklore, food and sports!

Outside of Kaštel Lukšić?, the areas of Trogir and Split are a must visit, with plenty of things to do including bustling town squares, shopping and nightlife.
