Location & Local Information

Kissamos Beach Villa has a brilliant location on the shores of Korfalonas in a rural setting just 2km from the popular town of Kissamos in Western Crete. The second largest city, Chania, is just a 20 minute car journey away and makes a fantastic day out with its lovely Venetian old town to explore. Chania airport is just forty-five minutes away.

The sea at Kissamos is a stunning colour of blue, restaurants are scattered along the sea side offering a good selection of Taverna food and plenty of fish. The Balos Beach / Lagoon is a popular place to swim and has a host of watersport offerings. A day's boat trip / charter is always a great way to enjoy the sea and scenery.

Out of high season there are local walking paths, best avoided in the midday sun.

The area has a few wineries that are worth a visit, as well as Olive Oil Press / factory.

What we love

- Rare beachfront location where lazy days can be spent admiring the sparkling turquoise Aegean
- Great location close to the popular town of Kissamos, with a range of helpful amenities near-by
- There is plenty to see and do in the area, we recommend taking a boat trip out to Gramvousa or Balos

What you should know...

- The villa is semi-detached so you will have neighbours however there is still plenty of privacy ensuring a relaxing escape. The neighbouring villa, Aegean View Villa is sold separately.
- We recommend hiring a car in order to reach near-by attractions and amenities
- In July and August the Villa can only be booked as an Estate with 2 bedrooomed Aegean View Villa sleeping an extra 4-5 guests. Therefore the price is for the two villas <https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/crete/chania/aegean-view-villa/>
