

Villa Patroves

Region: Albufeira Sleeps: 10

Overview

Relax in the perfect serenity of this fantastic family villa.

Conveniently located between São Rafael and Galé this villa is a little off the beaten tourist track offering peace and quiet yet still within a short distance of all of the local attractions and facilities including being within walking distance of many local eateries. Perhaps the best of all, this home is just steps away from the gorgeous beach of Praia de Coelha, also known as Rabbits Beach. This idyllic coast is cosy and private and also features bar/restaurant serving fantastic local fare.

The villa itself just oozes traditional Portuguese architecture boasting a cooling white finish which is continued throughout the home. The striking white design also features a rustic iron balcony with a green finish which fits in seamlessly with the natural leafy green and sky-blue surroundings.

One of the best features of this property can be found in the very generous garden. This is of course being the family sized pool! Surrounded by a slew of sun loungers offering guests the best of both worlds, picture sunning in the afternoon followed by a cooling splash in the crystal-clear waters of your own private pool. Also located poolside yet cleverly shielded from the sun by the balcony above is a sizeable dining area which can probably fit the whole family and more!

When you eventually tear yourself away from the coolness of the pool, or maybe you're in search of a respite from the hot Portuguese sun, the home has a number of areas where you can relax. There is a generous dining room, lounge, terrace and a huge kitchen which also features an outdoor cooking area!

Set across three floors, this home comfortably sleeps up to eight people over four bedrooms, providing enough room for friends and family alike.
