

Villa Naira

Region: Begur Sleeps: 10

Overview

Beautifully situated amongst the picturesque coast of Cala Aiguablava, of the famed Costa Brava, lies this gorgeous slice of paradise.

Framed by trees, sky and sea, this striking modern villa exudes exclusivity and this prestige is reflected entirely by the development that it is part of. Adding to the luxury of this property is the large, enclosed garden which is also home to a sizeable private pool! This garden alone, is the perfect vantage point to the nearby beach and the best backdrop for parties, entertaining, maybe even romance or just light contemplation in the reflection of the Mediterranean. The pool partly wraps around the home and is neighboured by cosy seating areas as well as an expanse of perfectly coiffed lawn. Picture barbecue's, pool parties and sunset cocktails, this villa really has it all.

The architecture of this villa breathes space and calm. The clean lines of the exterior also run through the dual level interior, perfectly framing large open plan living spaces and seamlessly flowing into the privacy of the bedroom areas. Villa Naira has five large bedrooms and can comfortably sleep up to ten people making this a great place for friends or family groups!

When you tired of the pool (if that's even possible!) the idyllic Aiguablava Beach lies mere metres away. For those who wish to venture a bit further, the beaches of Tamariu are only a short way away along with the local mountainous regions. There are plenty of towns and villages nearby, including Begur, which offers a plethora of family activities including shopping, restaurants, bars and the famous ruins of the Castell de Begur.
