

Villa Agueda

Region: Llafranc Sleeps: 8

Overview

Step into a world of Catalanian culture in this gorgeous villa, located on the cusp of the Mediterranean in the world famous region of the Costa Brava. This stunning villa has been finished to a very high level and offers chic, comfortable style throughout.

The exterior of the property boasts a traditional white finish, and is the kind of rustic architecture found all across Spain yet, when you follow those cobbled steps, push open those front doors and find yourself inside the villa a modern surprise awaits you. Whilst the calming white walls continue throughout the rooms, the home has been tastefully furnished with dark wood and modern features to create a more comfortable, homely feel.

The villa is set across two floors and features four bedrooms, comfortably sleeping up to eight people! Some of the bedrooms feature doors leading onto a private terrace which looks out onto the surrounding countryside. This is a place for contemplation, romance or just to find your own private place of peace! Beyond these serene bedrooms there is a well equipped kitchen, dining room and a large lounge, great for when you're looking for respite from the hot Spanish sunshine.

To the rear of the property is the garden which is home to a private pool. The deep blue hues are a fresh contrast to the hills of rolling green which surround you, creating a slew of inspiring colours. Poolside, you will find another dining area, perfect for al fresco Tapas! There is also a range of garden furniture and loungers available.

When looking to explore the local Catalanian culture, there is a huge variety of activities available for the whole family from shopping, bars, beaches and restaurants.

Location & Local Information

Located in the famed coastal region of Catalonia, of the North East of Spain lies the ever popular Costa Brava. Perhaps the most notable feature of these magnificent destination is it's rolling expanse of picturesque beaches, all of which are cosied around beautiful coastal towns and villages which are just overflowing with Catalonian charm and culture.

Whether you prefer romantic strolls or adventurous hikes across the rocks, these idyllic beaches provide the perfect backdrop for sunbathing, water sports, exploration and relaxation, a well balanced mixture of serenity and activity.

When you step away from these lovely beaches, you'll find that Costa Brava has a wealth of activities available for the whole family. There is the Aqua Brava water park, a favourite amongst children and thrill seekers, a welcome beach alternative. There is also a plethora of cathedrals, national parks, botanical gardens and even world famous golf courses all located nearby!

Costa Brava is also steeped in history, there are ruins and museums aplenty, with a specific homage to the great Salvador Dalí set across three separate museums.

For those night owls looking for something a little lively after the siesta there is a whole host of exciting nightlife options located throughout Costa Brava. Whether you are looking for classy cocktails or an energetic nightclub, Catalonia has it all! In fact, this area has one of the most highest densities of Michelin starred chefs in the whole of the country, offering fantastic food choices for post cocktail and romantic dinners with the show stopping background of the alluring Mediterranean.
