Location & Local Information

The beautiful, UNESCO protected Trogir is a fabulous location where you can saunter around the old Venetian styled town. You can enjoy the slightly racier pace of life and make the most of the abundance of restaurants, bars and clubs.

The surrounding villages, accessible by bus have impressively managed to maintain some of their original structures. Follow the original stone walls around the village and discover buildings such as The Church of St. Tudor, which was erected during the Middle Ages and supposedly housed the first Trogirian hermit. The Adriatic Sea is known as having so beautiful waters and fascinating sea life, which is why the likes of Trogir Diving School have been operating for more than 30 years and specialise in teaching budding scuba divers. If you prefer keeping dry whilst you observe your wildlife, then several businesses offer boat trips throughout the day and there's a strong possibility of seeing turtles, dolphins and various kinds of rainbow-like fish.
