

Casa Dub

Region: Dubrovnik Riviera Sleeps: 10

Overview

Indulge in the spoils of chic, modern Croatian life. Nestled amongst the hills of Dubrovnik, just a short way from the gentle caress of those blue Adriatic waves, and a small walk from the historical Old Town lies this fantastic holiday home.

Decked in hues of a light golden yellow and rustic stone, the exterior of this home is reminiscent of the rays of the sun and exudes a warm, welcoming atmosphere from the very outset. It's by this exterior that the focal points of this home can be found and enjoyed.

The garden area is a sleek, smooth concrete area which houses a large pool, great for those looking to swim, float or splash all summer long. The pool is heated too so is perfect for use throughout the seasons. The garden also hosts several sun loungers, and with an unobstructed view of the sky, guests can easily top up their summer glows.

Just behind the pool area, there is also a covered alfresco dining area with another dining area located on the other side of the pool, great for late night drinks or outdoor dinner parties.

Inside the home, there is a theme of calm and space embodied by the light matte white walls, these truly accentuate the features of every room and provide a relaxing respite from the hot sun for every guest. The downstairs of this villa is home to a well-equipped kitchen area and a dining area which opens up onto the garden.

Upstairs, there are five bedrooms comfortably sleeping ten guests in total. The bedrooms are a mix of double beds, single beds and twin rooms which is perfect for friendship groups or larger families.

Completing this home there is a cosy living area with a terrace offering magnificent views of the horizon.

Location & Local Information

Discover the old and the ancient with a luxurious twist in the beautiful city of Dubrovnik.

Located in Southern Croatia, this sea-facing city has become increasingly popular over the recent years attracting the likes of many well-known faces as well as many popular films and TV shows including the world-famous Star Wars and Game of Thrones.

For visiting movie and TV buffs, these filming locations are easy to find and make for a high snap to add to the scrapbook.

Dubrovnik is most known for its Old Town, which is a completely walled, pedestrian-only city and now a UNESCO world heritage site, which reaffirms its cultural and historical importance.

This city was created in the 16th century, widely referred to as Dubrovnik's heyday when they had one of the world's largest merchant naval fleets making Dubrovnik a vibrant city, this can be seen across much of the well-preserved architecture throughout the city.

Outside of the Old Town, Dubrovnik has so much to offer all visitors. There is a month-long summer festival that sees the streets filled with music and arts, an exciting day trip for the whole family.

There is also a maritime museum complete with in-depth aquarium. There are galleries, an open-air cinema, the Revelin nightclub, traditional wine bars, a cable car to the highest peak, beaches and plenty of adventure sports.

The Banje beach is especially great for guests, four-poster beds are dotted around the beach and are available for all-day rental, sunbathe here with a cocktail after a dip in the warm Adriatic.
