With a selection of small shops and a scattering of lovely beach bars and restaurants you will have plenty on your doorstep. You also have the old town of Du?e, situated at the foot of the Mosnjica Mountains, well worth a visit along with the cluster of other villages of preserved stone houses, quaint little streets, charming old squares around historic churches.

The stunning sandy beach Du?e benefits from a café and tavern offering welcome shade and refreshments. A charming stretch of coves then runs towards Omiš and has a variety of shallow beaches to choose from, ideal for families in their calm crystal clear waters and sheltered surroundings.

If you're looking for a little more hustle and bustle, a short drive into the old pirate town of Omiš (1.5km) will provide a greater selection of bars and an array of sporting activities from rafting, rock-climbing to canyoning. The Venetian fortress that looks out over the town from the hillside and a 17th century parish church are charming landmarks worth a visit. There are also opportunities here to arrange day trips to neighbouring Islands, the National Parks of Krka and Plitvice, and the beautiful city of Dubrovnik.

Split (20km), Croatia's second largest city, is a great place to see Dalmatian life as it's really lived. Step inside Diocletian's Palace (a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the world's most impressive Roman monuments) and you'll see dozens of bars, restaurants and shops thriving amid the atmospheric old walls where Split life has been humming along for thousands of years. Split offers a fabulous balance of tradition and modernity, creating a fun and exciting atmosphere for a day trip.

Other brilliant day trips include an excursion to the beautiful island of Bra?, which can be reached by boat from Omiš or drive to the lively town of Makarska (40km).
