Carvoeiro was once a small fishing village on the Algarve, but it has grown in recent years into one of the most popular beach resorts along this stretch of coast. There are stunning views to savour from its waterfront boardwalk, as well as excellent restaurants, great opportunities for water-sports and all the amenities you could need. And at just 10km from Portimão, all the attractions of that beautiful city are easily accessible too.

Location & Local Information

With some of the most stunning beaches on the Algarve in the vicinity, Carvoeiro is a town well worth discovering. It has developed a compelling offer to visitors, with a good range of restaurants, bars and amenities amongst the traditional whitewashed buildings of its centre, and beautiful sightseeing opportunities in all directions. Rugged cliff and secluded coves give the beaches of Carvoeiro plenty of character, with unusual rock formations that have become attractions themselves.

You can take a boat trip to see the caves of Praia de Benagil, where a circular 'eye' opening gives sight of a small beach hidden inside. Praia da Marinha, a short distance east, is considered to be one of the world's most beautiful beaches, with incredibly transparent waters, and Praia do Carvoeiro, closest to the town itself, is a charming spot too.

Along the clifftop, you can admire Carvoeiro's enviable surroundings from the boardwalk – many of the caves along the coast are visible from this vantage point. Another notable sight is the beautiful Alfanzina Lighthouse, and you may also come across the A Boneca restaurant. While there are many places to eat in Carvoeiro, not all can boast the incredible location of this one, amongst the rocks and caves, giving it an unrivalled ocean view.

South of mountainous Monchique, at around 50 minutes' drive from Faro Airport, Carvoeiro enjoys a great location west of that city. Well clear of the hedonism of the Albufeira strip, the resort has beautiful Portimão 10km away, with its stunning marina and excellent shopping facilities, and golf courses and theme parks close by.

You may also be tempted to take to the water in Carvoeiro, with windsurfing, kayaking and sailing all possibilities. Lively bars and nightlife are plentiful, but if you would rather chill out, the cool vibes of Manoel's Jazz Club could well entice you.
