Location & Local Information

Casa Chessa is located in a tranquil area on Hvar Island and is one of four villas in the property. The quiet neighbourhood gives you the peace and privacy whilst remaining ideally located, close to the city centre and a beautiful beach is just 70m away.

Hvar claims to be the sunniest spot in Europe, this idyllic Croatian island is the perfect destination for tourists seeking the beauty and tranquillity of Mediterranean beaches without the crowds of the busier cities! Hvar offers small fishing villages, secluded coves, lavender fields and local vineyards, all of which you can explore during your stay! As well as regular ferries back to Split, there are ferries and catamarans that carry visitors across the crystal-clear sea to the surrounding islands, all of which are worth exploring.

Highlights to visit in the port town are the 13th-century walls, a hilltop fortress and a main square anchored by the Renaissance-era Hvar Cathedral. One of the other highlights of this beautiful place, are the many local eateries, with fresh seafood and traditional gastronomy on offer, there is more than enough to choose from!

Hvar town itself can get very popular in the peak summer months; if you care about seeing and being seen, this is the place to be. Rubbing shoulders with the yachters are plenty of young partygoers, dancing on tables at the town's legendary beach bars. However, there are ample elegant restaurants and secluded, peaceful spots, should you wish for a quieter retreat and with Casa Chessa located in a tranquil neighbourhood it could be a perfect balance.
