

Villa Rufina

Region: Alcudia Sleeps: 4

Overview

The lovely Villa Rufina enjoys a fine location within walking distance of central Alcudia on Mallorca's eastern coast. The much-loved town is the setting for this modern 2-bedroom holiday home with private pool, which is just perfect for a small family or group of friends.

Air-conditioned throughout, this comfortable villa is surrounded by an attractive garden where you will find sun loungers waiting for you, lined up beside the 8m x 4m swimming pool. You have a covered dining area on the terrace, along with a brick-built barbecue and pizza oven – a fine place to get together over a meal in the evenings.

The house is open-plan, with a kitchen area featuring a breakfast bar, oven, microwave and dishwasher. This flows through to the seating area with satellite TV and DVD, and then the dining room which leads you out to the terrace. The décor is fresh and modern, and the house gets plenty of natural light.

A bathroom with walk-in shower and bidet accompanies the two bedrooms, one double and one twin. The house retains the traditional feel of a Mallorcan home, with lots of extra home comforts to make your stay even more special. You can stroll into Alcudia and enjoy what is thought of as one of the island's most beautiful towns. You have shops and restaurants as close as 400m away, and the golden sands of the beach are not far either – the beach stretches for several kilometres, so there will always be a new spot to discover. Attractions such as the Alcúdia Hidropark make a great day out for the children, while the adults might fancy checking out Alcanada Golf Club or perusing the street markets for local crafts and gifts.

Just along the coast, Puerto de Pollença and Cala Sant Vicenc have more great beaches and stunning scenery, so be sure to make the most of your time in this breathtaking region.

Location & Local Information

Pollença is an attractive town in north east Mallorca, in the foothills of the Tramuntana mountains. With beautiful architecture to appreciate, such as the Calvari steps, the town is rich in history. Among its highlights are the 'Pont Romà', an ancient Roman bridge, the Mare de Deu dels Angels church with its famous rose window, and the Convent de Sant Domingo.

The neighbouring port, Puerto de Pollença, lies to the north and has one of the area's best beaches, with numerous bars and restaurants to explore in the vicinity. Puerto de Pollença also offers water-sports, a water park for children, and a golf course can also be found just outside the town.

Also to the north of Pollença is Cala Sant Vicenc, one of Mallorca's smaller resorts, and home to three beaches: Cala Molins, Cala Barques and Cala Clara. The landscape is dramatic and hilly, with rugged cliffs and rocks, and its popularity with visitors has seen it develop some excellent restaurants, tapas bars and useful amenities.

Further down the coast, Alcúdia has a large marina, serving as a boarding point for boat trips to Menorca and the Spanish mainland. The town is considered one of the most attractive in the area, so don't miss out on seeing its historic centre, visiting the open-air market or seeing Spain's smallest Roman amphitheatre.

Many beautiful places can be found in the areas further inland, such as the Natural Park S'Albufera, the largest of its kind in the Balearics. Pollença is easily accessible, with Palma de Mallorca Airport around 60km away.
